October 2, 1760. NUMB. 1658.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Abſtract of an ACT of PARLIAMENT, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent MAJESTY, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, called The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

THE Act recites a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 11th and 12th of Auguſt 1699, from William Penn to Tobias Collet, Michael Ruſſell, Daniel Quare, and Henry Gouldney, of ſeveral Lots in Philadelphia; and a Tract of Land in the County of Bucks in Pennſylvania, granted to Richard Noble; and of One Hundred Acres of Land in the ſaid County, and all Buildings and Improvements thereon; and of Sixty Thouſand Acres of Land in Pennſylvania; Five Thouſand Acres thereof in the Manour of Highlands, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Gilberts, in the County of Philadelphia, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Rocklands (Seven Hundred Acres whereof were to be ſet out upon the River Delaware, and the reſt to be one Lot out of every Townſhip) and the Remainder of the ſaid Sixty Thouſand Acres to be ſet out of ſuch other Parts as the ſaid Grantees, their Heirs or Aſſigns ſhould deſire (except ſuch as were already taken up) and alſo of all Lots, Mines, Minerals, Royalties, Commons and Appurtenances (royal Mines only excepted) with a proportionable Part of all Liberty Lots laid out, but not taken up, at and under the yearly Rent of two Beaver Skins.

And alſo, that by Indenture, dated the ſame 12th of Auguſt, between the ſaid Grantees of the one Part, and William Beach and others, of the other Part, the ſaid Grantees agreed to ſtand ſeized upon Truſt, to execute ſuch Deeds as ſhould be approved of by the Grand Committee of the Proprietors; and that the ſaid Grand Committee, or Grantees, by their Order, might depute any Perſon in the ſaid Province to contract for and execute Conveyances of the Premiſes, and that the nett Profits of the Premiſes ſhould be divided into Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, and be managed by a Grand Committee, to be annually choſen, as therein mentioned; and that the Proprietors ſhould be called, The Proprietors of the Pennſylvania Land Company in London; with Directions how the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares ſhould be transferred or deſcend, in caſe of Death.

And alſo, that in the Year 1720, the Proprietors of the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, diſpoſed thereof to a new Sett of Proprietors, who divided the ſame into Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, and Receipts for many of them were ſigned and given out by Thomas Story the then Treaſurer.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 23d and 24th of December 1720, from the ſaid Thomas Story to John Haddon and Benjamin Kirton, of a Tract of Land between the two navigable Creeks in the County of Kent, in Pennſylvania, containing Eleven Thouſand Acres; another Tract, lying at Pequa Creek, in the County of Cheſter, in Pennſylvania, containing One Thouſand Nine Hundred and Forty Acres; another Tract in Goſhen, in the ſame County, containing Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres; another Tract on Schuylkill, in the ſaid County of Philadelphia, containing Three Hundred and Thirty-four Acres; one Oil, and one Corn or Griſt Mill, and the Land thereto belonging, containing Six Acres; another Tract of Land in the ſaid County of Bucks, containing One Hundred and Seventy Acres; one Bank Lot and Wharff, containing One Hundred and Twelve Feet, in the ſettled Part of the City, with a ſmall Tenement thereon, and Three Hundred Acres of rich Swamp Land near Philadelphia (whereof about Seventy Acres were imbanked and incloſed) and Seven Thouſand Two Hundred Acres of Land in Pennſylvania, not then taken up; in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 26th and 27th of September 1723, from Peter Sonmans to the ſaid Haddon, Samuel Bonham, Samuel Turner, and John Midford, of Two Ninetieth Parts of Ninety equal Hundredth Parts of a Tract of Land on the Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, called Arent Sonman's Manour, in the County of Burlington, containing Twenty Thouſand Acres, with the Allowance for Roads; and all other Tracts belonging to the ſaid Proprietaries in Weſt New-Jerſey, not then taken up; and all Mines, Minerals, Royalties, and Appurtenances thereto belonging (except and reſerved to the ſaid Sonmans, his Heirs and Aſſigns, one full Moiety of the ſaid two equal Ninetieth Parts, to be taken out and diſtinguiſhed from the remaining Part) in one entire Tract, in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo, the ſeveral Indentures, Conveyances and Deaths, whereby ſuch Parts of the Premiſes, as remain ſold, are become veſted in Thomas Hyam, Thomas Reynolds, and Thomas How, in Fee, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo that it appears, that about Nineteen Thouſand One Hundred and Ninety-four Acres of the Premiſes have been ſold, and that about Seventy-two Thouſand Three Hundred and Thirty now remain unſold, beſides ſome Houſes, Mills and Tenements.

And alſo, that Three Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty-one of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares have been transferred to John Bell, who, by his Deed-poll, dated the 12th of November 1753, acknowledged the ſame to be in Truſt for the ſaid Company; and, by Deed-poll dated the 21ſt of September 1759, aſſigned the ſame to the ſaid Hyam, Reynolds, and How, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo, that Two Hundred and Thirty-three Shares ſtand in the Books of the ſaid Partnerſhip, in the Names of ſome of the original Proprietors, and Three Thouſand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight Shares, in the Names of ſeveral Perſons ſpecified in the firſt Schedule,

And that, in Purſuance of Advertiſements, Claims have been made, under ſeveral Receipts, for Six Hundred and Fifty Shares, and Twenty-ſix Shares; and the Names of the Perſons who produced ſuch Receipts, or claimed ſuch Shares, are mentioned in the ſecond Schedule.

And alſo, that it is unknown who are entitled to the Remainder of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares; and that ſeveral of the Perſons, named in the ſaid Schedules, are dead; and ſome of the ſaid Shares have been aſſigned; and that the Premiſes unſold are greatly increaſed in Value; and, if ſold, would raiſe a conſiderable Sum to be divided amongſt the Perſons intereſted, and the parcelling out thereof may tend to populate the ſaid Colonies.

And alſo, that Contracts have been made with Francis Rawle, the ſaid Company's Agent in Pennſylvania, for Sale of ſome of the Premiſes; and that it will be for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted, that what remains ſhould with all convenient Speed be ſold; but Perſons decline treating, unleſs all the Perſons intereſted join in the Sale, or unleſs the ſaid Lands, by Authority of Parliament, be veſted in Truſtees to be ſold.

Therefore, it is ENACTED, that all the Premiſes (except what have been ſold and conveyed by the Truſtees) be veſted in John Fothergill, Doctor in Phyſic, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How, Devereux Bowley, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Silvanus Grove, and William Heron, their Heirs and Aſſigns, diſcharged of the Uſes, Truſts and Powers, the ſame are now ſubject to by the ſaid Indentures, and of all Right of the Perſons intereſted in the Partnerſhip on Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, but upon Truſt; with all convenient Speed to cauſe an Office-Copy of this Act to be inrolled in the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls in Philadelphia, and a full Abſtract thereof, inſerted ſeven Times at leaſt in the Philadelphia Gazette, with Notice that the Premiſes (not contracted for with the ſaid Rawle) are to be ſold by public Auction, at ſuch Times and Places in Philadelphia, as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Gazettes (not leſs than ſix Months from the firſt publiſhing ſuch Notice) in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer moſt; and ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other daily Papers in England, Advertiſements that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, in Parcels, to the beſt Bidder, with other Particulars as ſhall be requiſite; and on Receipt in England of the Pennſylvania Gazette (in which ſuch Abſtract and Advertiſements ſhall be inſerted, or one of them, with an Affidavit made before ſome Judge or Magiſtrate at Philadelphia, of the ſame being the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia) to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other News Papers in England, that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, at the Times and Place mentioned in the Pennſylvania Gazette.

And the Premiſes ſhall be put up to be ſold accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time, till ſold.

And, upon Truſt, to convey all Parcels, by the ſaid Rawle agreed to be ſold, to the Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money, and on Payment of the Money agreed for any Part, by the Act, veſted in the Truſtees, ſuch Premiſes ſhall, at the Coſt of the Purchaſers, be conveyed to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns.

The Truſtees are empowered to depute any Perſon or Perſons, in Pennſylvania, to ſell and convey, and may revoke ſuch Deputations, and execute new ones; and what ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall lawfully do and execute, under ſuch Deputation (until the Revocation thereof ſhall be inrolled in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls) ſhall be valid.

The Truſtees ſhall take Care, that ſufficient Security be given by every ſuch Perſon, for his due Behaviour, and remitting to England, with all convenient Speed, all Money received under ſuch Deputation; and no Perſon ſhall be capable to act under it, until he ſhall have given ſuch Security, and an Inrollment thereof be made in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls.

The Receipt of the Truſtees, or of any Perſon deputed as aforeſaid, for any Purchaſe Money, in reſpect of Premiſes agreed to be ſold by the ſaid Rawle, or which ſhall be ſold under this Act, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge, and the Purchaſers ſhall not be anſwerable for any Loſs, Miſapplication, or Nonapplication of the Purchaſe Money.

The Truſtees, after Receipt of any Money, ſhall with all convenient Speed pay the ſame into the Bank of England, or place it out in the public Funds at Intereſt, and apply the Dividends as the principal Money is directed to be applied.

None of the Truſtees, or their Deputies, nor any Perſon in Truſt for any of them, ſhall purchaſe under this Act; and every ſuch Purchaſe (if any) ſhall be void.

John Seare, Thomas Nugent, and James Eyre, Eſqrs; and John Paterſon and William Hayton, Gent. are appointed Commiſſioners for examining the Claims of Shares; and they are empowered, by Examination of Parties, or Teſtimony of Witneſſes upon Oath or Affirmation, or by Inſpection of Books, Deeds, Writings or Accompts of the Partnerſhip, or otherwiſe, to determine the ſame in a ſummary Way; their Power to continue for three Years, from the 24th of June 1760.

The Commiſſioners are to meet, after the ſaid 24th of June, in London; and at their firſt Meeting ſhall direct Advertiſements in the London Gazette, and other News Papers; and the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia, for all Perſons who claim any of the ſaid Shares, to make out their Right, and produce their Evidence before the Commiſſioners, at ſuch Times and Place in London, as in ſuch Gazette ſhall be ſpecified, before the 1ſt of January 1763, or that they will be precluded from any Dividend.

The Commiſſioners may adjourn from Time to Time, and employ Clerks and others, and provide Books, and in ſome of them enter the Claims made, and Evidence produced before them, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Claims, and on whoſe Behalf; and ſhall mark all written Evidence allowed by them; and on or before the 1ſt of March 1763, aſcertain how many Shares ſhall be allowed, and to whom, and ſhall caſt up the Amount thereof; and on or before the 24th of June 1763, ſhall, at the Expence of the Partnerſhip, cauſe a Copy of ſuch Books, ſigned by them, to be filed with the Clerk of the Reports in Chancery, who is required to file the ſame, and to take ſuch Fees as are allowed for copying and filing Reports.

Claims for Infants, may be made by their Fathers, Guardians or others; for Feme Coverts, by their Huſbands; and for Lunatics or Idiots, by their Committees.

An Affidavit or Affirmation, before any Judge or Maſter in Chancery, or, out of England, before a Judge or Magiſtrate in or near the Place, ſhall be admitted as Evidence before the Commiſſioners.

All Grand Committee-men, Truſtees, Agents, and Servants in England, of the Partnerſhip, are on reaſonable Notice to attend the Commiſſioners, and produce Books, Papers, Deeds and Writings, in their Cuſtody or Power, and to give Information touching any Claim; and alſo to account, on Oath or Affirmation (if required) for the Partnerſhip Eſtate come to their Hands, and the Ballance within Three Months ſhall be paid to the Truſtees.

The Commiſſioners are to ſettle and adjuſt all Debts claimed from the Partnerſhip, and to order what they ſhall find due, to be paid by the Truſtees, who are required to pay the ſame accordingly.

Perſons who ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, and be examined, or not fully anſwer all proper Queſtions, or to produce Papers, Deeds or Writings, ſhall by the Commiſſioners be committed to Priſon, to remain without Bail or Mainprize until they ſubmit; and the Commiſſioners, in caſe of Refuſal to anſwer Queſtions, ſhall ſpecify the ſame in their Warrant.

Perſons guilty of falſe Evidence, or Information, ſhall be liable to the Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Out of the Money which ſhall ariſe by Sale of the Premiſes, there ſhall be paid in the firſt Place the Coſts of the Act, and the reaſonable Expences of the Truſtees; and alſo, to ſuch of them as ſhall execute the Truſts, ſuch Sum as the Proprietors, at a General Meeting ſummoned for that Purpoſe, or the major Part in Value preſent ſhall direct; alſo all neceſſary Expences of the Commiſſioners, and of all Clerks, and Servants employed under them; and after the ſaid 24th of June 1763, to the Commiſſioners Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, which ſhall be divided in Proportion to their Attendance.

In caſe of the Death of two or more Commiſſioners, before the ſaid 24th of June 1763, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of Great-Britain, ſhall nominate others, and the Repreſentatives of the Deceaſed ſhall be intitled to a rateable Part of the ſaid Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, and every new Commiſſioner ſhall take the like Oath under the like Penalty.

All Money which ſhall remain, ſhall with all convenient Speed, after the ſaid 24th of June 1763, be applied in Manner following; that is to ſay, to all Perſons whoſe Right ſhall be allowed by the Commiſſioners, rateably according to the Number of their Shares, or as near as can be, the Dividends which ſhall be adjudged to belong to any Infant, Lunatic or Idiot, to be paid to their reſpective Guardians or Committees.

The Dividends of Perſons who ſhall omit, or not be able to make out their Right thereto, within the Time before limited, ſhall be paid into the Bank, in the Name, and with the Privity of the Accomptant General of the Court of Chancery, ſubject to the Orders of that Court.

Perſons who, before the 24th of June 1770, ſhall think themſelves intitled to any Part of the Money ſo paid into the Bank, may apply to the ſaid Court, who ſhall thereupon proceed in a ſummary Method, and make ſuch Orders as ſhall be juſt; and the Money paid into the Bank, which ſhall not before that Time be ordered to be paid, ſhall be paid to the Uſe of the Pennſylvania Hoſpital, and, on Application on their Behalf, the ſaid Court ſhall order the Accomptant General to draw on the Bank for the ſame, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital.

After any Money ſhall be paid into the Bank, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Court, on Application of any Perſon, to order the ſame to be placed out at Intereſt, which ſhall be applied as the Principal.

All Perſons, who apprehend themſelves aggrieved by any Determination of the Commiſſioners, may within two Months apply to the ſaid Court, who ſhall proceed in a ſummary Method, and determine the Matter complained of.

The Truſtees ſhall not be anſwerable, otherwiſe than each Perſon for ſuch Money only as he ſhall receive, and no one for the Acts, Receipts, Neglects, or Defaults of the other.

Saving the Rights of the King, and all Perſons, Bodies politic and corporate, other than the Parties intereſted in the ſaid Partnerſhip, and Perſons intitled to Shares, and Altena, July 8. The Report of Colberg's being inveſted by the Ruſſians, and that they only waited for their Artillery to beſiege it in Form, was premature, no Preparations having yet been made by them for any ſuch Enterprize.

July 10. It is given out here, that after the Battle of Landſhut, General Laudohn became poſſeſſed of a Cabinet belonging to General Fouquet, in which were contained not only all the Letters wrote by the King of Pruſſia to that General, but likewiſe Copies of all thoſe ſent to his Majeſty by that General, together with the Plan of Operations concerted for him to follow during the Campaign.

Hamburgh, July 8. The Anſwer which the Duke de Choiſeul made to the Letter which our Magiſtracy ſent to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, is not ſo favourable as we could have wiſhed. It is as follows:

Gentlemen,

"I have preſented to the King the Letter you had the "Honour to write to him. His Majeſty charged me to "acquaint you, that he ſhould anſwer the Aſſurances you "give him of Reſpect and Submiſſion, whenever he can "depend upon your Behaviour correſponding with your "Words, &c."

Paris, July 7. We learn from Liſbon, that the Pope's Nuncio was ſuddenly gone away from thence, and that he was eſcorted by a Detachment of Troops to the Frontiers of Spain. The Motive for his ſudden Departure is not yet known.

Rome, June 28. They write from Madrid, that Port-Mahon is to be given up to Spain when Peace is concluded, in Conſideration of the Six Millions which England owes that Court. If this Ceſſion ſhould take Effect, that Place will in little more than Half a Century have four different Maſters; the Allies took it in 1708; it was delivered up to the Engliſh in 1713; the French are at preſent in Poſſeſſion of it, and the Spaniards will be ſo next.

Toulon, June 16. Some of the wealthieſt Traders at this Place and Marſeilles are fitting out, at their joint Expence, 12 Half-galleys, carrying three Guns each, which they flatter themſelves will be of great Uſe in keeping the Enemy's Veſſels from approaching too near the Shore.

Ratiſbon, June 30. The Diet have voted the Emperor forty Roman Months to defray the Expences of the War. Theſe forty Roman Months, if the whole ſhould be paid in, would amount to 2,000,000 of Crowns.

LONDON, July 5.

We hear that Orders are given for 16 Tranſports to be got ready as ſoon as poſſible at Sheerneſs, which are to ſail for Gibralta, with Proviſions and Stores for the Uſe of that Garriſon; and that ſeveral Men of War will be ſent with them, and Recruits to compleat the Regiments there.

Orders have been ſent to Chatham, to expedite the building of the two 80 Gun Ships, in the Dock-yard there; purſuant to which an additional Number of Hands are employed, and the Keel of a new 70 Gun Ship has been laid, which is alſo to be built with all Expedition.

A French Privateer is taken by the Eſther Cutter Tender, and ſent into the Downs.

The Manderony, a French Privateer, is taken off the Texel, by the Hind Man of War, Captain Bond.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, June 24.

"The Affairs of Italy have given much Employment to the Miniſtry for ſome Days. The Regulations which the Catholic King wants to have made, are far from being to our liking: And yet we are ſo embarraſſed by what we have already on our Hands, that we cannot oppoſe them. We flattered ourſelves that the King of Denmark, in Concert with the States General, would have readily conſented to be a Mediator for putting an End to the Troubles of Germany; but that Prince will not meddle at all in it. Nevertheleſs, the Advices from the North give Uneaſineſs at Court: They inſinuate that the Daniſh Troops will make a longer Stay in Holſtein than was at firſt imagined; and that his Daniſh Majeſty was even determined to augment them, without aſſigning any Reaſon for it."

July 8. There are many curious Furs brought Home as Preſents from Canada, particularly a ſable Muff and Tippet, which coſt, in that Country, 50 Guineas; and a Carpet of exquiſite Workmanſhip, and of Variety of Colours, compoſed of dyed Graſs, manfactured by the Nuns at Quebec; which Carpet is to be preſented to His Majeſty.

The following is an Account of the Ships that have been taken by the French, from June 1, 1756, to June 1, 1760, collected from Lloyd's Liſts.

Of which 78 were Privateers.

During which Time we have taken from the French 944 Veſſels, 243 of which were Privateers, many fiſhing Boats and ſmall Coaſters, which would not pay the Expences of Condemnation.

Extract of a Letter from Venice, June 12, 1760.

"We were much alarmed to hear that the Senate was to meet this Day, to deliberate on Matters of the laſt Importance. They ſat about ſix Hours; and at their riſing, five Expreſſes were ſent away; one to Scotland, with Orders to General Græme, Commander in Chief of the Republic's Forces, to return to Venice as ſoon as poſſible, his Preſence being indiſpenſably neceſſary. The ſecond was ſent to the Iſland of Corfu; the third and fourth to the Courts of France and Vienna; what Road the fifth went, we have not learnt. All this greatly puzzles our Politicians. Some imagine that the Senate have been informed by their Miniſter at Conſtantinople, that the Grand Signior has conceived ſome Diſpleaſure againſt the Republic, and intends to ſeize the Iſland of Corfu."

July 10. By a Letter from Berlin, we are informed, that two Spies have been diſcovered in the Army commanded by his Pruſſian Majeſty; and, after a ſtrict Examination, they were immediately hanged on an Eminence, in Sight of an advanced Poſt of the Enemy.

July 12. The Æolus Man of War, which arrived at Plymouth laſt Saturday, took, in her laſt Cruize, the Menette Privateer of Bourdeaux, of four Guns, eight Swivels, and 64 Men, but ſhe foundered ſoon after ſhe was taken, and three Engliſhmen were drowned. She alſo took the Prince Noir, of Reden, with Proviſions for Cayenne.

His Majeſty's Ships Shannon, Favourite, Kennington, Squirrel, and Active, were all cruizing on the Coaſt of Provence, Genoa, &c. as we learn by Letters of the 23d of June. The Active Man of War took a French Privateer of 14 Guns, and ſent her to Barcelona.

July 17. They write from Hamburg of the 8th Inſtant, that a Quarrel had happened between the Crews of a Dutch and a Daniſh Ship in the Iceland Fiſhery, about the Dutch Encroachments in that Fiſhery, in which the Dane ſunk the Dutchman.

We are aſſured, that the pretended Men of War that were purchaſed by the French Merchants at Marſeilles, from the private Genoeſe Builders, are loading for St. Domingo and Martinico, and that the French have politically given them out for King's Ships, that they may the more eaſily elude the Vigilance of our Privateers.

The Tyger and Deal Caſtle, from St. Domingo, arrived at Bourdeaux, have brought over, beſides Sugar and Indigo, 150,000l. Sterling in Bullion, as we are informed.

Yeſterday, at one o'Clock, General Clive waited upon the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, at their Houſe in Leadenhall-ſtreet, where he received the Thanks of the Court for his gallant Behaviour.

We hear that the Parliament will ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs the latter End of October.

July 19. Letters from Copenhagen of the 5th inſt. import, that ſome Dutch Ships were taken by the Daniſh Man of War, beſides the Ship that was ſunk, for going beyond the Bounds allowed them by the Court of Denmark to fiſh near the Iſland of Iceland. The Dutchmen not being ſatisfied with the uſual Cod Fiſhery, wanted to encroach, and fiſh for Rock-fiſh, which are eſteemed the beſt.

ST. JOHN'S (in ANTIGUA) AUGUST 16.

We hear from Guadaloupe, that Colonel Crauford, of the Royal Welſh Volunteers, is appointed Governor of that Iſland; and that his Regiment, conſiſting of 1400 Men, may be expected there ſhortly.

Yeſterday an Engliſh Flag of Truce returned hither from Martinico, and by her we learn, that the Captures made by the Enemy, have not, for ſome Time paſt, been ſo numerous as heretofore. The French gave out, that two Ships of the Line, and four Frigates, were arrived from France; but a Dutchman, who had been at Fort-Royal, declared, there were only two Frigates, and two Store Ships there. The Store Ships brought out ſome diſmounted Dragoons.

BASSETERRE (in St. Chriſtophers) Aug. 9.

The Boſcawen, Captain Simms, brought into the Road of Baſſeterre, on Wedneſday laſt, the Hirondelle, a French Sloop, laden with Sugar, &c.

Yeſterday arrived in the Road of Baſſeterre in this Iſland, two Schooners bound to Martinico from St Euſtatius, loaded with Proviſions and dry Goods, and taken by His Majeſty's Ship Temple, Lucius O Brien, Eſq; Commander.

Auguſt 13. On Saturday laſt, about Two o'Clock in the Morning, a ſevere Shock of an Earthquake was felt in this Iſland.

Upon the 9th Inſtant arrived in the Road of Baſſeterre in this Iſland, a Sloop bound to Martinico from St. Euſtatius, with Proviſions and dry Goods, taken by His Majeſty's Ship Arundel, James Innes, Eſq; Commander; and upon the 10th, a French armed Schooner, loaded with Sugar and Coffee, bound to Coracoa from Martinico, and taken by His Majeſty's Ship Temple, Lucius O Brien, Eſq; Commander, and His Majeſty's Ship Griffin, Thomas Taylor, Eſq; Commander.

Auguſt 20. The Privateer Boſcawen, Captain Simms, brought, on Sunday laſt, into the Road of Baſſeterre, two Prize Pettiaugers.

And Yeſterday was brought into the ſame Road, a Schooner called the Little Hannah, bound from Martinico for St. Euſtatius, loaden with Rum, Coffee and Sugar. She was taken by the Pitt, Captain Williams, and the Young Boſcawen, Captain Lightfoot.

Auguſt 23. Upon the 21ſt Inſtant, arrived in the Road of Baſſeterre in this Iſland, a Sloop with Coffee, Flour, and other Goods, taken out of the Grenades by His Majeſty's Ships Temple, Lucius O Brien, Eſq; Commander, and Griffin, Thomas Taylor, Eſq; Commander. Thoſe Ships have lately battered down ſome Forts at the Grenades, and taken out eight Veſſels; but we are not yet well informed of the Circumſtances.

Auguſt 27. Two Prize Schooners and a Sloop have been brought ſince our laſt into the Road of Baſſeterre. They are Part of the Veſſels cut out of the Grenades, by His Majeſty's Ships Temple and Griffin.

September 6. The Privateer Sloop Pitt, Captain Williams, has brought into the Road of Baſſeterre, a Schooner and a Sloop, bound from St. Euſtatius for Martinico.

Yeſterday arrived in the Road of Baſſeterre in this Iſland, His Majeſty's Griffin, Thomas Taylor, Eſq; Commander, and brought in two Schooners, laden with Sugar, Coffee, and Proviſions, which were cut out of the Grenades, by the ſaid Ship, and His Majeſty's Ship Temple, Lucius O Brien, Eſq; Commander.

BOSTON, September 22.

Captain Lord, in a Sloop bound to this Place from St. Martin's, was taken on the 27th of Auguſt laſt, about 60 Leagues Eaſt of Bermuda, by a French Privateer Schooner, Monſ. Nicholai, Commander, and having ranſomed his Veſſel, got into Martha's Vineyard, from whence he came by Land laſt Wedneſday Morning.

We have Advice, that Captain Fleet, in the Brig Duke, bound from hence to Jamaica, was taken the 18th of June, on his Paſſage thither, by two French Men of War from Martinico, bound to Breſt, and after taking the People on board one of their Ships, immediately burnt his Veſſel. Three Days after they took Captain Movalt, in a Ship from Philadelphia for Jamaica, who ranſomed his Veſſel, and proceeded on his Voyage, after taking two of Captain Fleet's Hands on board, who are arrived in ſaid Veſſel at Jamaica, from whom we have the above Intelligence.

Tueſday Evening arrived here, Captain Bourn, in but 17 Days from Quebec, and Yeſterday Captain Small, in 18 Days from thence.

Captain Bourn ſpoke with Captain Tinkham, in a Ship bound up to Quebec, eight Days ago, who had been from London 6 Weeks: Nothing but WAR was talked of there.

PORTSMOUTH (in NEW-HAMPSHIRE) Sept. 12.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Bumbury (who ſailed from this Port laſt June) dated at St. Croix, Auguſt 2, 1760.

"I take this Opportunity (by the Way of New-London) to acquaint you of my Misfortune, being taken in the Snow General Townſhend, the 10th of July, by a French Frigate, bound to Bourdeaux, in the Latitude 31, 23 N. and Longitude of 57 Degrees Weſt: They took out ſeveral ſmall Stores, and threw off all the Hoops and Shingles from Deck, took out 40 Quintals of Fiſh, and ſhot one Horſe; and about four Hours after took all my Hands on board the Snow, and ſent a Prize Maſter and five Frenchmen on board us, with Orders to proceed to Martinico. In two Days after we parted from the Frigate, the Prize Maſter bore away for St. Croix, and told me his Reaſon for ſo doing, was, that he was afraid of our Frigates that were cruizing off Martinico. On the 22d of the ſame Month we made the Land, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, which the Prize Maſter took to be the Iſland of Anigada; at Twelve o'Clock it bore W. by N. two Leagues: I then told the Prize Maſter, unleſs he made more Sail, we ſhould not get into St. Croix next Day, on which he immediately ordered two of his Men up forward, and two abaft, to let a Reef out of the Top-ſails. I at that Time gave Mr. Meſerve a Hint of my Deſign, and deſired him to aſſiſt them, and take the Helm, while the Prize Maſter and the other Frenchmen went forward to hoiſt the Fore-top-ſail: I took this Opportunity to go aft, where, with a Spike Nail, I made three Attempts before I broke open the Prize Maſter's Cheſt, which lay on the Larboard Side of the Quarter Deck; out of which I took all the Arms, which were only one Pair of ſmall Pocket Piſtols, that had no Bullets for them, and one Pair of large Piſtols, one of which was loaded; I directly loaded the other, and new primed them both; I then went down into the Cabbin, and after taking twelve Cartridges out of the Box, hove the reſt overboard, and went up on the Quarter Deck, cloſe to the Barracado, where I found the Prize Maſter and three of his Men coming aft to hoiſt the Main-top-ſail; I told them not to advance, or make any Reſiſtance, if they did I would immediately blow their Brains out; telling them in the Main-top, not to come down, for I would do the ſame to them, upon which, advancing upon them, they retreated off the Lumber, before the Windlaſs: I then ordered Mr. Meſerve to ſteer in for the Land, which appeared to be the Virgin Guard, though I told the Frenchmen it was Antigua, and that if they behaved well they ſhould not go to Goal: I ordered them to haul up the Fore-ſail, and hoiſt the Boat out, and directed the Prize Maſter, his Mate, and another Frenchman, to go into the Boat; and made the others go aft, and take their Officer's Cheſt, and their own Things, into the Boat; then called thoſe down out of the Main-top, and ordered them in the Boat, which I ſoon caſt off, bidding them to follow me: We then wore the Snow, and made all the Sail we poſſibly could for St. Croix, where we arrived ſafe in the Afternoon of the 23d of July."

NEW-YORK, SEPTEMBER 25.

Camp before Montreal, September 9. 1760.

"I have the Pleaſure to tell you that all Canada is ſubjected to the King of Great-Britain. Yeſterday the Capitulation was ſigned, and our Troops took Poſſeſſion of the Town; there are many Articles, which as I have not ſeen, I cannot tell you, the material ones are, the Inhabitants to enjoy their Property and Religion, on taking the Oath of Fidelity to His Majeſty, and becoming good Subjects, which they in general ſeem very free to do. The Right of nominating a Biſhop to be in the King of England, though ſtrongly inſiſted on to be the Right of the French King. The Regular Troops (of which there are eight Battalions) to be Priſoners of War, and to bind themſelves not to ſerve againſt His Majeſty, nor his Allies, during the War. This ſevere Article, and what they look upon as an Indignity, they ſtrove hard to ward off, but could not; and were obliged to comply, though the Officers ſay to their Ruin; and were told by the General, that the barbarous and inhuman Manner in which they had proſecuted the War, was the Reaſon ſuch Terms, which military Men call hard, were impoſed on them. We have not had a Gun fired at us ſince entering the Country. The Militia in general refuſed to fight, and the General forbid any Depredations on them, ſo that little Harm has been done them by the Army, not even by the Savages, not more than would have been done by ſuch an Army in our own Country: I entirely like ſuch a Regulation, though I think it much better Treatment than they deſerve, or had Reaſon to expect. Such a glorious Conqueſt with ſo little Loſs is almoſt unparalelled; I think our military Toils in America are now finiſhed, for a Time at leaſt. I have not been in Town yet, there being an Order, that no Perſon go in till the Affairs of the Stores, Magazines, &c. are ſettled. I cannot yet give you an Account of the Town, of the Ladies, the Nuns, &c. all which I defer till I may have the Pleaſure of ſeeing you. This happy Event that puts the finiſhing Stroke to our Conqueſts in America, happened on the ſame Day of the Month and Week as that which was the firſt important favourable Action of the War in America, viz. that with Mr. Dieſkau, at Lake-George, and makes it a memorable Day."

Sept. 29. Since our laſt arrived here from Albany, the Priſoners that were taken at Fort-Levi, on Iſle-Royale, in the River St. Lawrence, with their Commander, Monſ. Poucher.

We hear that General Amherſt ſet out for Quebec, a few Days after the Surrender of Montreal, in order to view that Place.

From Albany we learn, that after the City of Montreal had ſurrendered, upwards of 300 Ladies of Diſtiction, implored the Protection of General Amherſt, who was pleaſed to order proper Care to be taken of them, and gave them all their Jewels, Rings, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, October 2.

By Captain Cobourn, from St. Chriſtophers, there is Advice, that on the 30th of Auguſt they had a violent Gale of Wind there, in which ſome Veſſels were driven aſhore: And that at Montſerrat a Ship belonging to London, with 400 Hogſheads of Sugar on board, and a Bermudian Sloop, were alſo drove aſhore; the firſt ſaid to be intirely loſt.

From Montreal we learn, that Monſieur Vaudreuille, late Governor, and Commander in Chief of Canada, with all the regular Troops, the Merchants and Citizens of Montreal, and all Perſons belonging to Old France, were to be ſent home immediately: And that the Peaſants, born in Canada, and having Poſſeſſion of Lands, are to remain, on their taking the Oaths of Fidelity, but not to trade with the Indians on Pain of Death.

I THE Subſcriber, in Compliance with Orders received from the Truſtees named in the above Act of Parliament, do hereby give Notice, That all the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, by the ſaid Act veſted in the ſaid Truſtees (and not before the paſſing thereof, contracted for with me to be ſold) will be ſpeedily ſold, by public Vendue, in this City, in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer the moſt and beſt Prices for the ſame; of which ſeveral Houſes and Lots in this City, and ſundry Tracts and Parcels of Land, ſituate in the Counties of Philadelphia, Bucks, Lancaſter and Berks, and in the Province of Weſt New-Jerſey, will be ſold as aforeſaid, in the Months of April and May next; a particular Account and Deſcription of which, and the Days and Place when and where the Sales will be held, will be ſhortly advertiſed in this and other News Papers. The Remainder of ſaid Eſtate will be ſold in like Manner ſoon after what is now advertiſed, of which due Notice will be alſo given.

FRANCIS RAWLE, Attorney for the Truſtees.

All Perſons indebted to the Partnerſhip, commonly called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, for Arrears of Rent, or otherwiſe, are hereby required to pay the ſame forthwith to me, for the Uſe of the Truſtees for the Proprietors of ſaid Partnerſhip, or in Default thereof, they will be proceeded againſt at Law for Recovery of ſaid Debts, and thereby be put to Expence and Trouble.

FRANCIS RAWLE, Attorney for the Truſtees.

June 26, 1760.

THE Commiſſioners named and appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the 33d Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, commonly called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; Do hereby give Notice, that all Perſons who have or claim any of the 482 unclaimed Shares in the ſaid Partnerſhip, or any Receipts ſigned or given out for the ſame by Thomas Story, in the ſaid Act named, or any Right to any other Share or Intereſt in the ſaid Partnerſhip, or any Receipts for the ſame, are to claim and make out their reſpective Rights thereto, and produce the Receipts, Probate of the Wills, Aſſignments, or other Evidence, under which they reſpectively claim, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, before the Firſt Day of January, 1763, or otherwiſe they will be precluded from any Dividend of the Money which ſhall ariſe by or from the Sale of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which ſhall be ſold in Purſuance of the ſaid Act, and other the Eſtate belonging to the ſaid Partnerſhip by the ſaid Act directed to be divided. And that the ſaid Commiſſioners will meet to execute the Powers and Authorities veſted in them by the ſaid Act, at the Houſe of Mr. Thomas Hyam, in Philpot Lane, London, between the Hours of Nine and Twelve of the Forenoon, on Wedneſday, the Ninth of July, Wedneſday, the Thirteenth of Auguſt, and Wedneſday, the Tenth of September, 1760, and on the firſt Wedneſday in every ſucceeding Month, until further Notice. By Order of the Commiſſioners,

TO be ſold or lett, upon reaſonable Terms, by the Subſcriber, a very valuable Water mill, lying on the Head of Worton Creek, Kent County, Maryland, with about 30 Acres of very good Land adjoining the ſaid Mill, fit for Up-land Meadow or Paſturage. The ſaid Mill is very commodiouſly ſituated for Water Carriage, as a large Flat, or any other ſmall Veſſel, may come within 30 Feet of the ſaid Mill, and within a Quarter of a Mile a large Ship may load; ſhe is alſo in a very fine Part of the Country for purchaſing almoſt any Quantity of Wheat, at reaſonable Terms, either with Goods or Caſh, and is always to be purchaſed from Nine-pence to Eighteen-pence cheaper per Buſhel there than at Philadelphia; ſhe is alſo in a very extraordinary Part of the Country for a Merchant or Tradeſman. Any Perſon inclining to purchaſe or rent the ſaid Mill and Land, may know the Terms by applying to the Subſcriber, living near the Premiſes.

The ſaid Mill is at this Time out of Repair, but may ſoon be put in very good Order, without much Expence. SAMUEL BUDD.

N. B. The aforeſaid Creek leads into Cheſopeak Bay, ſo that they will have the Conveniency of Water Carriage to Virginia, Annapolis, Baltimore-Town, Charles-Town, the Head of Elk River, Bohemia, and Apoquiminy; the laſt four Rivers do not exceed 40 Miles Diſtance from the ſaid Mill. ¶ 6 W.

BY the Command and Order of the wiſe Magiſtrates at Ilantz, and in the Grub, ſituate in the Upper League of the ancient Rhætia [or the Country of the Griſons:] Theſe are to notify to Hans Walther, of Valendas, and his Wife Catherine, of the Family of da Runge, together with their four Children, Hans Blaſi, Hans, Michael, and Catherine, who in the Year 1735 went over to the Engliſh North-American Colonies, as alſo to their Deſcendants, that, on Pain of forfeiting all the Eſtates and Effects, together with the Rights, Privileges and Prerogatives, belonging to them here, they, or any of them, within the Term of ſix Months after the third and laſt formal Publication of this Advertiſement, do ſend in their Names, and, by authentic Documents, do prove and ſhew forth, that they are the above-named Perſons, or their Deſcendants, to the Purpoſe that, for their own Intereſt, their Eſtates and Effects may farther be taken Care of; in Failure whereof, and after the Expiration of this fixed peremptory Term, they ſhall no more be heard, nor their Appeals admitted.

N. B. If any one or more of the above mentioned Griſons, or their Deſcendants, ſhould be found out, they are deſired to ſend the requiſite Documents for their Legitimation to Mr. PETER MILLER, at the Hand and Pen, in Second-ſtreet, Philadelphia, who will take Care to ſend them to London, from whence they will be forwarded to Ilantz aboveſaid.

RUN away from the Subſcriber, about the 7th of April laſt, A convict Servant Man, named John Baker, but had a forged Paſs, and called himſelf John Laws; he was born in the Weſt of England, and ſpeaks much on that Dialect; has black Hair, about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a ſwarthy Complexion, and is a Blackſmith by Trade. Had on, and took with him, A Dove coloured Broadcloth Coat and Breeches, almoſt new. He was ſeen at Buſſel-Town about the 18th of July, and it is likely has altered his Clothes. Whoever takes up ſaid Servant, and brings him to his Maſter, in Baltimore County, ſhall have Six Piſtoles Reward, and if ſecured in any Goal Three Piſtoles, and reaſonable Charges, paid by

CHARLES RIDGLEY. † 8 W.

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

RUN away, on the 28th of July laſt, from the Subſcriber, living in Alexandria, Fairfax County, Virginia, A convict Servant Man, named John Murphey, born in Ireland, about 28 Years of Age, by Trade a Joiner, a low well-ſet Fellow, about 5 Feet 4 Inches high, ſtruts in his Walk, has a pale Complexion, large black Beard and Eye-brows, wide Mouth, and pleaſant Countenance, ſings extraordinary well, having followed it in the Play-houſes in London, talks proper Engliſh, and that in a polite Manner; his Apparel not all known by me, but had a fine hat, almoſt new, good Wig, and Linen, both coarſe and fine, two brown Cloth Jackets, with and without Sleeves, new black knit Breeches, alſo good Buckſkin Ditto, fine white Cotton Stockings, and others, Braſs Buckles, and good Shoes. I believe he has a muſical Grammar, the Owner's Name wrote in it Richard Rigg; likewiſe I am informed had a Quantity of Dollars, and likely to be baſe Metal, as he ſeems experienced in coining. It is imagined he has forged a Paſs, and likely will deny his Name, Trade and Place of Nativity. Whoever ſecures the ſaid Convict in any Goal, ſo as his Maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above Reward, and if brought home, reaſonable Charges, paid by JOHN PATTERSON. ¶ 8 W.

N. B. All Maſters of Veſſels are forbid to take him off at their Peril.

To be LEASED,

For a longer or ſhorter Time,

A VERY good Merchant Mill, of the following Dimenſions, the Houſe 40 Feet by 30, with a large Bolting-cheſt on each of the lower Floors, and a Pair of beſt large Cullenſtones; is ſituated on a conſtant Stream, about three Miles from Choptank River; the Creek is navigable for ſmall Boats from ſaid River to the Mill Fall. Any Perſon inclinable to leaſe the ſaid Mill, may have it on moderate Terms, by applying to the Subſcriber, at Cambridge, in Maryland. DAVID MURRAY.

N. B. Any Perſon that underſtands keeping a Mill well, may meet with Encouragement, by applying to ſaid Murray. ‖ Tbc 5 W.

BY Virtue of a Writ to me directed, will be expoſed to public Sale, at the Houſe of George Smith, in Germantown, about Three o'Clock, on the 15th Day of October next, a Lot or Piece of Land, ſituate in Germantown, bounded Eaſterly with Germantown Street, Northerly with a Lot belonging to William Shippen, Weſterly with another Lot of ſaid Shippen, and Southerly with a ten Feet Alley or Paſſage, called Spring-Alley; containing in Breadth 30 Feet, and in Length or Depth 217 Feet; ſubject to a Ground-rent of One Spaniſh Piſtole and an Half, or Two Pounds Two Shillings current Money of Penſylvania, per Annum. Alſo another Lot or Piece of Land, ſituate in Germantown, bounded by Bowman's Street, and by Roxborough Townſhip Line, and by Land late of Arnold and Funk; containing three Acres, three Quarters of an Acre, and 20 Perches; ſubject to a Ground-rent of Four Pounds per Annum; late the Eſtate of John Coſtard; taken in Execution by

SAMUEL MORRIS, SHERIFF.

TO be ſold by public Vendue, on Friday the 3d of October next (or on Saturday, if that ſhould prove rainy) at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Sign of the Buck, on Rouſe's Road, near the Premiſes, ſundry Lots of Land, being Part of the Eſtate late of Theodorus Lord, deceaſed, ſituate in Paſſyunk Townſhip, and now diſtinguiſhed by the Name of No. 1, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. No. 1, conſiſting of 15 Acres three Quarters and 29 Perches, is moſt commodiouſly ſituated for a Gentleman's Country Seat, has a Front of 22 Perches and four Tenths, on a high Part of the Bank of the River Schuylkill, where there is a fine Proſpect of the River, to the Right Hand, and to the Left, as alſo a handſome Landſcape over the River, and where there is alſo good Fiſhing and Fowling; it is fenced in, has on it a good bearing Orchard, and the whole might be made into Meadow, by manuring it from the River. No. 4. contains three Acres and an Half and 19 Perches, being partly Woodland, and has a Front of 75 Perches on Rouſe's Road. No. 5, 6, 7 and 8, contain each ſeven Acres, are well timbered, and have each a good Front on Rouſe's Road, and within Fence. The whole being within about three Miles of the City, and two good Roads leading from thence to any of the Lots; and if one of theſe is too ſmall for one Purchaſer, he may add to it, by purchaſing one or more of the adjoining Lots. Any Part of this Eſtate would anſwer for Country Seats, or raiſing Garden Truck to attend the Market. The Title is indiſputable. Any Perſon inclining to purchaſe, may ſee a Plan of the Land, and alſo the Land itſelf, by applying to JOHN SEARSON, at his Houſe in Third-ſtreet, next Door but one to the Corner Houſe, on the North Side of Market-ſtreet, who will accompany them to the Premiſes, and adviſe them of the Terms, before the Day of Sale. ¶

Now fitting out for a Cruize againſt His Majeſty's Enemies, and will be ready to ſail by the 6th of October,

The Private SHIP of WAR BRITANNIA, JOHN M'PHERSON Commander;

Mounting 20 Six-pounders on one Deck, and will carry 160 Men.

All Gentlemen Sailors, and able bodied Landſmen, who incline to take a Cruize in ſaid Ship, may ſee the Articles at Mr. M'Intire's Tavern, at the Sign of the Pennſylvania Frigate, in Front-ſtreet.

It is well known, that not leſs than 700 Sail of Ships, lately employed as Tranſports in the Service of the French King, are now converted into Merchantmen; and thoſe, with many more, encouraged by the great Decreaſe of Engliſh Privateers, are making Voyages almoſt unmoleſted, which is great Encouragement for Adventurers. Wherefore, as the Ship is an exceeding faſt Sailer, and will be fitted in the beſt Manner, it is not doubted but ſhe will be fully manned by the Time appointed, a great Number having already engaged.

TO be ſold at public Vendue, on Tueſday, the 14th of October next, at Ten o' Clock in the Forenoon, upon the Premiſes, A Lot of very good Woodland, in Springfield Townſhip, Philadelphia County, containing 6 Acres, and 60 Perches, adjoining the Land of Siby Bartle, about 11 Miles from Philadelphia, fronting the Great Road, where due Attendance will be given by me

The following was deſigned for laſt Week's Paper, but, for Want of Room and Time, we were obliged to defer it.

Prince-Town, Naſſau Hall, September 25, 1760.

YESTERDAY the anniverſary Commencement of the College of New-Jerſey was held here. The Proceſſion of the Truſtees and Candidates from the Preſident's Houſe to Naſſau-Hall, began at the Ringing of the Bell, preciſely at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon. The Order was---The Candidates for the Degree of Batchelor of Arts firſt, two and two, uncovered; the Candidates for the Degree of Maſter of Arts followed next, uncovered; and the Truſtees according to their Seniority, the youngeſt firſt, and the Governor and Preſident laſt, concluded. When the Candidates arrived to the Steps of the middle Entrance into the Hall, they ſtopt, and the whole Proceſſion divided itſelf equally on each Side the Gravel Walk, and entered in an inverted Order.---The Collegiate Exercıſes began with a handſome ſalutatory Oration in Latin, pronounced by Mr. Jonathan Smith; then followed a Latin Syllogiſtick Diſpute, wherein the Reſpondent held, that Sermo primitus ab Inſpiratione divina Originem duxit; which was well maintained and oppoſed. When this was concluded Mr. Benjamin Ruſh aroſe, and in a very ſprightly entertaining Manner, delivered an ingenious Engliſh Harangue in Praiſe of Oratory. Then ſucceeded a Forenſick Diſpute in Engliſh, wherein it was held that, The Elegancy of an Oration much conſiſts in the Words being conſonant to the Senſe: The Reſpondent, Mr. Samuel Blair, acquitted himſelf with univerſal Applauſe in the elegant Compoſition, and Delivery of his Defence; and his Opponent anſwered him with Humour and Pertinency. This was ſucceeded by a Latin Diſpute in the Socratick Way, in which the Reſpondent affirmed, that Syſtema Ethicæ perfectum in præſenti Hominum Conditione, ſine Ope divinæ Revelationis conſtrui nequit; and by a well compoſed valedictory Oration in Engliſh, pronounced by Mr. Enoch Green. The Singing an Ode on Science, compoſed by the Preſident of the College, concluded the Forenoon Exerciſe.

The Entertainments of the Afternoon began with the following Addreſs, preſented to his Excellency the Governor by Mr. Stockton, in the Name of the Truſtees.

To his Excellency THOMAS BOONE, Eſq; Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame,

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE the Truſtees of the College of New-Jerſey beg Leave, in the moſt reſpectful Manner, at this our firſt Meeting ſince your Excellency's Arrival, to preſent you with our Congratulations on your Acceſſion to the Government of this Province.---With the higheſt Pleaſure, Sir, we have ſeen you aſcend the chief Seat in this Government; not only with the univerſal Approbation of a loyal and free People, but with ſuch Advantages of Character and Reputation, as cannot fail of inſuring to them the Bleſſings of a good Adminiſtration.

That Liberty which glorioufly diſtinguiſhes the Britiſh Government, ſo naturally ſprings from the Cultivation of the liberal Arts and Sciences, that we are well aſſured of your Excellency's favourable Notice of every Inſtitution calculated for the promoting ſo important a Purpoſe; it is therefore, with the moſt agreeable Anticipations, we recommend to your Excellency's Patronage and Protection, the Seminary of Learning committed to our Care; founded by one, and patronized by another of your Predeceſſors: An Inſtitution erected on the Principles of Liberty and Catholiciſm, only for the Promotion of the general Intereſts of Virtue and Learning.

His Majeſty's royal Charter of Incorporation has honoured us, by appointing the Governor of this Colony, for the Time being, a Member and Preſident of our Board; and we aſſure your Excellency it gives us a peculiar Pleaſure, that on ſo public an Occaſion as our anniverſary Commencement, you have vouchafed us an Opportunity, not only of paying you our Reſpects, but at the ſame Time of having your Directions and Aſſiſtance from the Preſident's Chair. Permit us, Sir, to preſume that this is an Earneſt of your future Condeſcenſion; and that at all Times, when the more important Branches of your Government will admit, we ſhall, at our annual and occaſional Meetings, be favoured with your Excellency's Attendance.

May your Adminiſtration, Sir, be abundantly diſtinguiſhed with Eaſe and Comfort to yourſelf, and Proſperity to this Colony: And may the univerſal Suffrage of a happy and obliged People be continually offering you the moſt grateful Acknowledgments.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM as much obliged to you for, and as pleaſed with your polite and kind Addreſs, as I ſhould have been mortified not to have given you, by my Preſence here, an Earneſt of my Inclination to contribute, as far as I am able, to your Conſideration and Advantage. As long as this Inſtitution is ſo conducted as to improve the Man, and render him in all Reſpects a more valuable Member of Society and Government, I ſhall be happy to give it all the Countenance that my Station will enable me.

I ſhall endeavour, Gentlemen, to deſerve the obliging Wiſhes you form for my happy Adminiſtration, by an Adherence to what I think juſt and right; the only Byas that I hope will ever take Poſſeſſion of my Judgment.

After which the Candidates for the Maſters Degree, diſputed in Latin the following Queſtions, to wit, An Rector civilis ullam in Rebus Fidei Poteſtatem habeat? and, Nonne abſurdum eſt Deum immutabilem precari? which were learnedly defended, and ingeniouſly oppoſed. The Preſident then deſcended from the Roſtrum, and, with the uſual Formalities, conferred the Degree of Batchelor of Arts on the following young Gentlemen, to wit, Joſeph Alexander, John Archer, Samuel Blair, Enoch Green, Alexander Huſton, Enos Kelſey, Benjamin Ruſh, John Simons, Jonathan Smith, Joſiah Thacher, and Amos Thomſon.----And alſo the Degree of Maſter of Arts on Thomas Gibbons, of London, Alexander Cumming, John Blair, Andrew Hunter, John Rodgers, Robert Smith, Samuel Kennedy, William Kirkpatrick, Peter Faneuil, John Boyd, David Smith, Moſes Baldwin, Caleb Barnum, Abner Bruſh, Caleb Curtiſs, Timothy Edwards, Alexander M'Whorter, John M'Keſſon, Samuel Parkhurſt, Joſeph Reed, Jeffery Smith, Joſeph Treat, and Elijah Williams.

Mr. Joſeph Treat, one of the Maſters, and a Tutor of the College, then aſcended, and delivered an elegant, pathetick valedictory Oration in Engliſh; in the Cloſe of which he very handſomely touched upon the preſent flouriſhing State of our Public Affairs in North-America. The Singing an Ode on Peace, compoſed alſo by the Preſident of the College, concluded the whole, to the univerſal Pleaſure and Satisfaction of a numerous Auditory.

Germantown, October 9, 1760.

The SPEECH of his EXCELLENCY HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland, to both Houses of Assembly, on Friday, the 26th Day of September, 1760.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of ASSEMBLY,

YOU are at this Time convened, in Consequence of a Letter which I lately received from the Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces on Lake Erie, and the River Ohio; wherein, after intimating that the Service of the Regular Troops commanded by his Excellency General AMHERST will be wanted in some other Quarter, he signifies to me, that for the Support of His Majesty's Rights on that Lake and River, it will be absolutely necessary, that this Province should furnish at least Two Hundred Men, with a proportionate Number of Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers, who, together with the Provincial Troops in the Pay of the neighbouring Colonies, may be employed in garrisoning His Majesty's Forts in that Department. Such, Gentlemen, are the Contents of General MONCKTON's Letter, which it is my Duty to recommend to your immediate Consideration; and as the Service that you are desired to provide for, is so very essential, and the General's Requisition may be so easily complied with, I flatter myself you will most chearfully embrace the Opportunity that is now given you, of contributing towards the Preservation of His Majesty's Rights in this Part of America, and of removing, in some Degree, the unfavourable Opinion, which the Measures that have for some Time been unhappily pursued here, have inclined many, besides His Majesty's Generals on this Continent, to entertain of the People of Maryland.

If, Gentlemen, after you have made Provision for the Service which I have recommended to your Consideration, you shall think fit to proceed to other Business, you may be assured of my ready Concurrence in any Measure likely to promote the Ease, Interest, and Prosperity of the Inhabitants of this Province.

BOSTON, September 29.

Last Friday being appointed to be observed as a Day of general Rejoicing for the entire Reduction of CANADA: At Noon his Excellency the Governor, accompanied with the Lieutenant-Governor, the Gentlemen of the Council, and several other Gentlemen of the Town, preceded by the Troop of Horse Guards, and guarded by the Company of Cadets, went from the Province House to the Council Chamber, when his Excellency received the Compliments of the Gentlemen on this happy Occasion: After which, on a Signal given, the Guns at Castle William were discharged to the Number of 63, which were followed by the Guns of several Ships in the Harbour.---The Troop of Horse Guards, the Regiment of Militia, and the Company of Cadets being drawn up before the Council Chamber performed their rejoicing Fires. From thence his Excellency, with the Lieutenant-Governor, the Gentlemen of the Council, several Members of the House of Representatives, and many of the principal Gentlemen of the Town, guarded by the Company of Cadets, went to Faneuil Hall, where a public Dinner for 150 Persons was provided. After Dinner his Excellency and the Company went to the Concert Hall, on the Invitation of the Managers, and were entertained with a Concert of Music. In the Evening his Excellency, &c. went to the Council Chamber, when, upon a Signal given, the Guns of the Batteries were fired, to the Number of 30, and fine Fireworks were played off from a Scaffold erected in King-street, before the Council Chamber; in the Intervals of which His Majesty's Health, and many other loyal Healths, were drank: The Gallery of the Council Chamber was adorned with transparent Painting; the whole Town was illuminated; there were two large Bonfires erected, with Scaffolding 5 Stories high, on the two principal Hills of the Town, and another of the same Structure on a Hill in Charlestown; and there was a great Variety of Fireworks (besides the public) played off in different Parts of the Town. In short, there were all possible Expressions of that universal Joy which this happy and glorious Event has diffused through this loyal and grateful People.

At the Illumination last Friday Evening, on Account of the Reduction of the City of Montreal, and with that the Reduction of all CANADA, in several Windows in Town were presented to View some ingenious Representations; and from the illuminated Scenery at the Balcony of the Court-House, were exhibited the following Designs. On the Front, facing King-street, in the Middle, Britannia sitting; on the Left-hand, Fortitude; on the Right, Minerva: Behind, Neptune and Mars in Attendance. At a little Distance, Victory introducing Peace. Britannia, a Female Figure, representing France, prostrate, her Sword broken, and subjecting a Map of Canada at the Feet of Britannia. Behind France a Group of Figures representing Cruelty, Deceit, Craft, and Envy, blasted by a Flash of Lightning from Jupiter, who sits above, with the Scales of Justice suspended by one Hand, and on the other his Thunder Bolt.

On the South End of the Balcony, the Portrait of Mr. Secretary Pitt, holding a Bow, Virtue guarding him with her Shield, and Apollo beaming down into his Bosom. At a Distance, France attempting to bind America, but transfixt with a Dart, and the Shackles broken asunder. Beneath, this Motto, Pro Libertate, existens.

On the other Side of the Balcony, two Obelisks, with Trophies: One, to the Memory of General Wolfe, a Motto,----------Pallas te hoc Vulnere, Pallas Immolas------

And in the Garden of Mr. Sheriff Greenleaf, which was also very beautifully illuminated with Lanthorns, &c. was a transparent Painting, representing his Majesty King GEORGE; under him, on the Right, Mr. Secretary Pitt; on the Left, his Excellency General Amherst; below all was the City of Montreal, with the French Flag struck, and the English one flying on the Walls of that Place; on one Side of which was seen France in Tears; represented by a female Figure, wrapped in a Shroud, adorned with Flower de Luces, and sitting on the Ground in a dejected Posture, weeping; at her Feet this Inscription, CANADA REDUCED; and over all, a Representation of the Sun, shining in its full Lustre.----------

Extract of a Letter from St. Kitts, August 21, 1760.

"One of his Majesty's Ships of 74 Guns, and a Frigate, have silenced two Batteries at the Granades, and cut out 13 Sloops and Schooners, deeply loaded. The Enemy have not been so harrassed in these Seas since the War, as they have been within this Month past. Commodore Douglas constantly keeps his Ships employed in cruizing for the Enemy's Privateers, and many are taken, which renders the Navigation to the West-Indies, since the Arrival of that Gentleman, much more secure than has been experienced."

We hear that the Honourable Commodore Lord Colvill has appointed the Winchester Man of War, Captain Hale, to convoy the Mast-ships from Portsmouth Home.---She is daily expected at Piscataqua from Halifax, for that Purpose.---The Crown is also expected at Piscataqua from Halifax, to load with Masts.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 6.

Last Monday Night, one Mr. Pearson, a Mate belonging to his Majesty's Ship the Mercury, now in this Harbour, having been in Company with a lewd Woman, in a House near the College, in this City, got his Pocket picked of his Money, and suspecting the Woman of the House to be concerned in the Robbery, swore if she did not return him the Money, or find him the Woman that stole it (she having absconded directly) he would be her Death that Minute; but she denying any Knowledge of the Affair, Mr. Pearson immediately drew his Sword, and stabbed her in the Body, of which Wound she died last Thursday. The Coroner's Inquest being summoned, they brought in their Verdict, Wilful Murder. Mr. Pearson is now confined on board the Mercury.

Monday last arrived here the Regiment of Highlanders commanded by Colonel Frasier.

Friday last a Number of Canadians, that were taken at Isle-Royale, in the River St. Lawrence, by General Amherst, embarked on board a Sloop for Albany, in order to return to Canada, they having taken the Oath of Allegiance to his Britannick Majesty.

Thursday next, being the 9th of October, is appointed to be a Day of public and solemn Thanksgiving throughout the Province of the Massachusets-Bay, on Account of the Reduction of all Canada.

We learn by the Post from Albany, that all the Provincial Troops which went from Crown-Point to Isle au Noix, &c. were returned back to that Place, by Order of General Amherst, after having got within four Miles of Montreal; 'tis said they will soon be dismissed, with Leave to return to their respective Homes.

Since our last, great Part of Colonel Montgomery's Highlanders, who lately arrived here from South-Carolina, and went up to Albany, returned hither from above, on their Way to Halifax.

"A few Days ago two of our Turtlers returned from a Voyage to the Florida Shore, where they met with a pretty extraordinary Adventure, which I shall relate to you. A few Days before they left that Shore they were surprised at seeing a good many Indians approaching in Canoes; towards whom they fired several Shot, not with an Intent to hurt, but to deter them from coming nearer: The Indians nevertheless advanced, and at last displayed English Colours. This appeared more singular still, but our Turtlers resolved, instead of firing mischievously, to let them come near, and see the Event. As the Indians approached, some of them at last spoke pretty good English, said they were Subjects of the same King, and were going to War against their old Enemies the Indians of Florida. They proved to be 19 Euchees, and had with them a Spaniard, who had been their Prisoner 6 Months, and was to serve them as Pilot on their Inroad, to have his Liberty if he was faithful, otherwise to be put to Death; after staying some Time on board the Vessels, and behaving very orderly, they went away towards the South West, in Quest of their Enemies. They had not been gone long, before they fell in with the main Body of the Floridians, whom they surprised and fell in upon like a Torrent, killed many, and took 11 Prisoners, without any Loss on their Side; the rest took to their Pit-pans and fled South-westerly. Thus did Vengeance for once fall heavy on those Blood-thirsty Miscreants who have made numberless Sacrifices of our unhappy Countrymen, that have had the Misfortune to be Shipwrecked on that Shore.

"After the Euchees had settled Matters so as to go on with their Operations, they went on board a new Spanish Schooner, which was lying near the Keys, where they had the Engagement, with only one Spaniard on board (the rest of the Crew, five in Number, being out a fishing) which they burnt; they then put both their Spaniards on Shore, and left two of their Number to guard them, proceeding after the Fugitives, but the Indian Guards inconsiderately going to sleep at one Time, the Spaniards took their Arms, and put an End to their Labours, and came off with every Thing that could be useful to them, on board our Vessels, where they related the Affair of the Engagement and burning of the Schooner as aforesaid. Soon after our Vessel met with a Spanish Schooner, with whom the two Spaniards went to Cuba.

"Most of the Flags of Truce and Monto-Christi Traders that were sent in here, are condemned: Some Spaniards have been discharged with Costs."

Extract of a Letter from Fort-Bedford, Sept. 26.

"I am sorry I have no better News to communicate, than the fresh Instance of want of Sincerity and Humanity in the Cherokees, who, instead of fulfilling the Terms of the Capitulation of Fort-Loudoun, by conducting the Garrison to Fort Prince George, as they had engaged to do, fell upon them unawares, butchered the Commanding Officer in the most cruel Manner, killed all the Officers, except Capt. Stuart, put to Death 25 Soldiers on the Spot, and dispersed the rest (above 200) amongst the Towns, to be Slaves or Sacrifices. They are now gone against Fort Prince George; it is thought they reserved Capt. Stuart, in order to make use of him towards the Surrender of that Garrison, but the Little Carpenter purchased him of the Indian that had him, and has brought him, with three other white Men, to Col. Byrd. You may depend upon this as Fact. The Express that passed here Yesterday, in his Way to Fort Pitt, brought me a Letter from Major Irwin, dated the 15th Instant, at Sayer's Mill, where Col. Byrd is now encamped, waiting for Orders from Williamsburgh. It is thought they will kill all the Prisoners they now have, if the Garrison of Fort Prince George does not surrender, and that if it does they will put the whole to Death, when they have them in their Power. God keep them out of their Hands."

 Those who propose sending Books, &c. to Mr. Dunlap's Auction, are desired to be speedy, as the Catalogue is now preparing for the Press; and they may otherwise miss the Opportunity of having them properly disposed in said Catalogue.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Abſtract of an ACT of PARLIAMENT, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent MAJESTY, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

THE Act recites a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 11th and 12th of Auguſt 1699, from William Penn to Tobias Collet, Michael Ruſſell, Daniel Quare, and Henry Gouldney, of ſeveral Lots in Philadelphia; and a Tract of Land in the County of Bucks in Pennſylvania, granted to Richard Noble; and of One Hundred Acres of Land in the ſaid County, and all Buildings and Improvements thereon; and of Sixty Thouſand Acres of Land in Pennſylvania; Five Thouſand Acres thereof in the Manour of Highlands, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Gilberts, in the County of Philadelphia, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Rocklands (Seven Hundred Acres whereof were to be ſet out upon the River Delaware, and the reſt to be one Lot out of every Townſhip) and the Remainder of the ſaid Sixty Thouſand Acres to be ſet out of ſuch other Parts as the ſaid Grantees, their Heirs or Aſſigns ſhould deſire (except ſuch as were already taken up) and alſo of all Lots, Mines, Minerals, Royalties, Commons and Appurtenances (royal Mines only excepted) with a proportionable Part of all Liberty Lots laid out, but not taken up, at and under the yearly Rent of two Beaver Skins.

And alſo, that by Indenture, dated the ſame 12th of Auguſt, between the ſaid Grantees of the one Part, and William Beach and others, of the other Part, the ſaid Grantees agreed to ſtand ſeized upon Truſt, to execute ſuch Deeds as ſhould be approved of by the Grand Committee of the Proprietors; and that the ſaid Grand Committee, or Grantees, by their Order, might depute any Perſon in the ſaid Province to contract for and execute Conveyances of the Premiſes, and that the nett Profits of the Premiſes ſhould be divided into Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, and be managed by a Grand Committee, to be annually choſen, as therein mentioned; and that the Proprietors ſhould be called, The Proprietors of the Pennſylvania Land Company in London; with Directions how the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares ſhould be transferred or deſcend, in caſe of Death.

And alſo, that in the Year 1720, the Proprietors of the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, diſpoſed thereof to a new Sett of Proprietors, who divided the ſame into Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, and Receipts for many of them were ſigned and given out by Thomas Story the then Treaſurer.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 23d and 24th of December 1730, from the ſaid Thomas Story to John Haddon and Benjamin Kirton, of a Tract of Land between the two navigable Creeks in the County of Kent, in Pennſylvania, containing Eleven Thouſand Acres; another Tract, lying at Pequa Creek, in the County of Cheſter, in Pennſylvania, containing One Thouſand Nine Hundred and Forty Acres; another Tract in Goſhen, in the ſame County, containing Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres; another Tract on Schuylkill, in the ſaid County of Philadelphia, containing Three Hundred and Thirty-four Acres; one Oil, and one Corn or Griſt Mill, and the Land thereto belonging, containing Six Acres; another Tract of Land in the ſaid County of Bucks, containing One Hundred and Seventy Acres; one Bank Lot and Wharff, containing One Hundred and Twelve Feet, in the ſettled Part of the City, with a ſmall Tenement thereon, and Three Hundred Acres of rich Swamp Land near Philadelphia (whereof about Seventy Acres were imbanked and incloſed) and Seven Thouſand Two Hundred Acres of Land in Pennſylvania, not then taken up; in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 26th and 27th of September 1723, from Peter Sonmans to the ſaid Haddon, Samuel Bonham, Samuel Turner, and John Midford, of Two Ninetieth Parts of Ninety equal Hundredth Parts of a Tract of Land on the Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, called Arent Sonman's Manour, in the County of Burlington, containing Twenty Thouſand Acres, with the Allowance for Roads; and all other Tracts belonging to the ſaid Proprietaries in Weſt New-Jerſey, not then taken up; and all Mines, Minerals, Royalties, and Appurtenances thereto belonging (except and reſerved to the ſaid Sonmans, his Heirs and Aſſigns, one full Moiety of the ſaid two equal Ninetieth Parts, to be taken out and diſtinguiſhed from the remaining Part) in one entire Tract, in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo, the ſeveral Indentures, Conveyances and Deaths, whereby ſuch Parts of the Premiſes, as remain ſold, are become veſted in Thomas Hyam, Thomas Reynolds, and Thomas How, in Fee, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo that it appears, that about Nineteen Thouſand One Hundred and Ninety-four Acres of the Premiſes have been ſold, and that about Seventy-two Thouſand Three Hundred and Thirty now remain unſold, beſides ſome Houſes, Mills and Tenements.

And alſo, that Three Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty-one of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares have been transferred to John Bell, who, by his Deed-poll, dated the 12th of November 1753, acknowledged the ſame to be in Truſt for the ſaid Company; and, by Deed-poll dated the 21ſt of September 1759, aſſigned the ſame to the ſaid Hyam, Reynolds, and How, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo, that Two Hundred and Thirty-three Shares ſtand in the Books of the ſaid Partnerſhip, in the Names of ſome of the original Proprietors, and Three Thouſand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight Shares, in the Names of ſeveral Perſons ſpecified in the firſt Schedule,

And that, in Purſuance of Advertiſements, Claims have been made, under ſeveral Receipts, for Six Hundred and Fifty Shares, and Twenty-ſix Shares; and the Names of the Perſons who produced ſuch Receipts, or claimed ſuch Shares, are mentioned in the ſecond Schedule.

And alſo, that it is unknown who are entitled to the Remainder of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares; and that ſeveral of the Perſons, named in the ſaid Schedules, are dead; and ſome of the ſaid Shares have been aſſigned; and that the Premiſes unſold are greatly increaſed in Value; and, if ſold, would raiſe a conſiderable Sum to be divided amongſt the Perſons intereſted, and the parcelling out thereof may tend to populate the ſaid Colonies.

And alſo, that Contracts have been made with Francis Rawle, the ſaid Company's Agent in Pennſylvania, for Sale of ſome of the Premiſes; and that it will be for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted, that what remains ſhould with all convenient Speed be ſold; but Perſons decline treating, unleſs all the Perſons intereſted join in the Sale, or unleſs the ſaid Lands, by Authority of Parliament, be veſted in Truſtees to be ſold.

Therefore, it is ENACTED, that all the Premiſes (except what have been ſold and conveyed by the Truſtees) be veſted in John Fothergill, Doctor in Phyſic, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How, Devereux Bowley, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Silvanus Grove, and William Heron, their Heirs and Aſſigns, diſcharged of the Uſes, Truſts and Powers, the ſame are now ſubject to by the ſaid Indentures, and of all Right of the Perſons intereſted in the Partnerſhip on Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, but upon Truſt; with all convenient Speed to cauſe an Office Copy of this Act to be inrolled in the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls in Philadelphia, and a full Abſtract thereof, inſerted ſeven Times at leaſt in the Philadelphia Gazette, with Notice that the Premiſes (not contracted for with the ſaid Rawle) are to be ſold by public Auction, at ſuch Times and Places in Philadelphia, as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Gazettes (not leſs than ſix Months from the firſt publiſhing ſuch Notice) in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer moſt; and ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other daily Papers in England, Advertiſements that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, in Parcels, to the beſt Bidder, with other Particulars as ſhall be requiſite; and on Receipt in England of the Pennſylvania Gazette (in which ſuch Abſtract and Advertiſements ſhall be inſerted, or one of them, with an Affidavit made before ſome Judge or Magiſtrate at Philadelphia, of the ſame being the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia) to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other News Papers in England, that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, at the Times and Place mentioned in the Pennſylvania Gazette.

And the Premiſes ſhall be put up to be ſold accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time, till ſold.

And, upon Truſt, to convey all Parcels, by the ſaid Rawle agreed to be ſold, to the Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money, and on Payment of the Money agreed for any Part, by the Act, veſted in the Truſtees, ſuch Premiſes ſhall, at the Coſt of the Purchaſers, be conveyed to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns.

The Truſtees are empowered to depute any Perſon or Perſons, in Pennſylvania, to ſell and convey, and may revoke ſuch Deputations, and execute new ones; and what ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall lawfully do and execute, under ſuch Deputation (until the Revocation thereof ſhall be inrolled in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls) ſhall be valid.

The Truſtees ſhall take Care, that ſufficient Security be given by every ſuch Perſon, for his due Behaviour, and remitting to England, with all convenient Speed, all Money received under ſuch Deputation; and no Perſon ſhall be capable to act under it, until he ſhall have given ſuch Security, and an Inrollment thereof be made in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls.

The Receipt of the Truſtees, or of any Perſon deputed as aforeſaid, for any Purchaſe Money, in reſpect of Premiſes agreed to be ſold by the ſaid Rawle, or which ſhall be ſold under this Act, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge, and the Purchaſers ſhall not be anſwerable for any Loſs, Miſapplication, or Nonapplication of the Purchaſe Money.

The Truſtees, after Receipt of any Money, ſhall with all convenient Speed pay the ſame into the Bank of England, or place it out in the public Funds at Intereſt, and apply the Dividends as the principal Money is directed to be applied.

None of the Truſtees, or their Deputies, nor any Perſon in Truſt for any of them, ſhall purchaſe under this Act; and every ſuch Purchaſe (if any) ſhall be void.

John Seare, Thomas Nugent, and James Eyre, Eſqrs; and John Paterſon and William Hayton, Gent. are appointed Commiſſioners for examining the Claims of Shares; and they are empowered, by Examination of Parties, or Teſtimony of Witneſſes upon Oath or Affirmation, or by Inſpection of Books, Deeds, Writings or Accompts of the Partnerſhip, or otherwiſe, to determine the ſame in a ſummary Way; their Power to continue for three Years, from the 24th of June 1760.

The Commiſſioners are to meet, after the ſaid 24th of June, in London; and at their firſt Meeting ſhall direct Advertiſements in the London Gazette, and other News Papers; and the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia, for all Perſons who claim any of the ſaid Shares, to make out their Right, and produce their Evidence before the Commiſſioners, at ſuch Times and Place in London, as in ſuch Gazette ſhall be ſpecified, before the 1ſt of January 1763, or that they will be precluded from any Dividend.

The Commiſſioners may adjourn from Time to Time, and employ Clerks and others, and provide Books, and in ſome of them enter the Claims made, and Evidence produced before them, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Claims, and on whoſe Behalf; and ſhall mark all written Evidence allowed by them; and on or before the 1ſt of March 1763, aſcertain how many Shares ſhall be allowed, and to whom, and ſhall caſt up the Amount thereof; and on or before the 24th of June 1763, ſhall, at the Expence of the Partnerſhip, cauſe a Copy of ſuch Books, ſigned by them, to be filed with the Clerk of the Reports in Chancery, who is required to file the ſame, and to take ſuch Fees as are allowed for copying and filing Reports.

Claims for Infants, may be made by their Fathers, Guardians or others; for Feme Coverts, by their Huſbands; and for Lunatics or Idiots, by their Committees.

An Affidavit or Affirmation, before any Judge or Maſter in Chancery, or, out of England, before a Judge or Magiſtrate in or near the Place, ſhall be admitted as Evidence before the Commiſſioners.

All Grand Committee-men, Truſtees, Agents, and Servants in England, of the Partnerſhip, are on reaſonable Notice to attend the Commiſſioners, and produce Books, Papers, Deeds and Writings, in their Cuſtody or Power, and to give Information touching any Claim; and alſo to account, on Oath or Affirmation (if required) for the Partnerſhip Eſtate come to their Hands, and the Ballance within Three Months ſhall be paid to the Truſtees.

The Commiſſioners are to ſettle and adjuſt all Debts claimed from the Partnerſhip, and to order what they ſhall find due, to be paid by the Truſtees, who are required to pay the ſame accordingly.

Perſons who ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, and be examined, or not fully anſwer all proper Queſtions, or to produce Papers, Deeds or Writings, ſhall by the Commiſſioners be committed to Priſon, to remain without Bail or Mainprize until they ſubmit; and the Commiſſioners, in caſe of Refuſal to anſwer Queſtions, ſhall ſpecify the ſame in their Warrant.

Perſons guilty of falſe Evidence, or Information, ſhall be liable to the Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Out of the Money which ſhall ariſe by Sale of the Premiſes, there ſhall be paid in the firſt Place the Coſts of the Act, and the reaſonable Expences of the Truſtees; and alſo, to ſuch of them as ſhall execute the Truſts, ſuch Sum as the Proprietors, at a General Meeting ſummoned for that Purpoſe, or the major Part in Value preſent ſhall direct; alſo all neceſſary Expences of the Commiſſioners, and of all Clerks, and Servants employed under them; and after the ſaid 24th of June 1763, to the Commiſſioners Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, which ſhall be divided in Proportion to their Attendance.

In caſe of the Death of two or more Commiſſioners, before the ſaid 24th of June 1763, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of Great-Britain, ſhall nominate others, and the Repreſentatives of the Deceaſed ſhall be intitled to a rateable Part of the ſaid Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds, and every new Commiſſioner ſhall take the like Oath under the like Penalty.

All Money which ſhall remain, ſhall with all convenient Speed, after the ſaid 24th of June 1763, be applied in Manner following; that is to ſay, to all Perſons whoſe Right ſhall be allowed by the Commiſſioners, rateably according to the Number of their Shares, or as near as can be, the Dividends which ſhall be adjudged to belong to any Infant, Lunatic or Idiot, to be paid to their reſpective Guardians or Committees.

The Dividends of Perſons who ſhall omit, or not be able to make out their Right thereto, within the Time before limited, ſhall be paid into the Bank, in the Name, and with the Privity of the Accomptant General of the Court of Chancery, ſubject to the Orders of that Court.

Perſons who, before the 24th of June 1770, ſhall think themſelves intitled to any Part of the Money ſo paid into the Bank, may apply to the ſaid Court, who ſhall thereupon proceed in a ſummary Method, and make ſuch Orders as ſhall be juſt; and the Money paid into the Bank, which ſhall not before that Time be ordered to be paid, ſhall be paid to the Uſe of the Pennſylvania Hoſpital, and, on Application on their Behalf, the ſaid Court ſhall order the Accomptant General to draw on the Bank for the ſame, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital.

After any Money ſhall be paid into the Bank, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Court, on Application of any Perſon, to order the ſame to be placed out at Intereſt, which ſhall be applied as the Principal.

All Perſons, who apprehend themſelves aggrieved by any Determination of the Commiſſioners, may within two Months apply to the ſaid Court, who ſhall proceed in a ſummary Method, and determine the Matter complained of.

The Truſtees ſhall not be anſwerable, otherwiſe than each Perſon for ſuch Money only as he ſhall receive, and no one for the Acts, Receipts, Neglects, or Defaults of the other.

Saving the Rights of the King, and all Perſons, Bodies politic and corporate, other than the Parties intereſted in the ſaid Partnerſhip, and Perſons intitled to Shares, and

FRANKFORT, July 18.

THE Caſtle of Dillenbourg ſurrendered on the 16th to the French. The Garriſon conſiſted of near 250 Men, who are made Priſoners of War. This Siege laſted longer than the French expected, and has coſt them many Men.

Rome, July 5. The Corſican Malecontents have publiſhed a Manifeſto, of which the following is an Extract.

'We have made War againſt the Republic of Genoa for 'thirty Years, and the Juſtice of our Cauſe is known to 'all Europe. That Power is the greateſt Enemy we ever 'had; it ſeizes Ships under our Flag, ſets the neighbouring Nations againſt us, interrupts our Commerce, and 'tyrannifes over us. Accordingly, all ſuch of our Countrymen as are inclined to fit out Privateers, being firſt 'furniſhed with ſuitable Commiſſions and Authority for 'ſo doing, are enjoined to fall upon the Subjects of that 'Republic. At the ſame time we proteſt, that we ſhall 'obſerve an inviolable Reſpect for the reſt of the Powers 'of Europe.'

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

From Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Saxenhauſen, July 18. Advice having been received by Prince Ferdinand, That a Body of the Enemy, conſiſting of ſome Battalions and light Troops, were advanced on the Left of our Army towards Zeigenhaim, his Serene Highneſs detached the Hereditary Prince on the 14th Inſt. with ſix Battalions, two Hanoverian, and four Heſſian, Elliot's Regiment (which was juſt arrived) Luckner's Huſſars, and two Brigades of Chaſſeurs, to oppoſe that Corps. On the 16th the Hereditary Prince engaged them near the Village of Erxdorff. The Action was very warm for ſome Time, but in the End the Enemy was entirely defeated. Two Battalions of Royal Baviere, three of Anhalt, together with the Commander in Chief, Major General Glaubitz, and the Prince of Anhalt Cothen, were made Priſoners of War. Six Pieces of their Cannon were taken, and all their Arms, Baggage, &c. Elliot's Regiment ſignalized themſelves greatly upon this Occaſion. The main Army of the French, under M. Broglio, ſtill remains encamped upon the Heights of Corbach.

By AUTHORITY.

"The City of Dreſden having been inveſted on the 13th, the ſame Day the King cauſed the Governor, General Maquire, to be ſummoned to ſurrender the Place, and offered him an honourable Capitulation, and Liberty for himſelf and Garriſon to march out freely; aſſuring him, that if he would accept this Offer, he ſhould receive no Injury, nor the City any Damage. General Maquire rejected this Capitulation, and made Anſwer, that he would defend the Place to the laſt Extremity. We were therefore obliged to employ Force; the Suburbs were carried, and Batteries were begun to be erected. The Governor no ſooner ſaw us Maſters of the Suburbs, than he ſet Fire to them with his Artillery, and burnt the Houſes, which, during the former Siege, General Schmettau thought might be ſpared. Our Works, however, were not diſcontinued; the Batteries were erected, and they began to fire on the 18th, the heavy Cannon not arriving till the Day before.

"As theſe Batteries were very near the Works, and ſome of them even at the Side of the Foſſe, ſome random Bombs ſet Fire to the Houſes next to the Ramparts; which it was not eaſy to prevent, though the King had expreſly ordered, that the Artillery ſhoul! not play on the Town, but wholly on the Ramparts. However, the Conflagration would not have become general, had not our Gunners perceived four Pieces of Cannon on the Tower of the Church of the Croſs, which fired on our Batteries. Some Bombs which were thrown to ſilence them, ſet Fire to the Tower. The Fall of the Steeple communicated the Flames to the neighbouring Houſes, and a high Wind ariſing, ſpread them ſo far, that a conſiderable Quarter of the Town has been burnt. However, the Caſtle, the Arſenal, the Roman Catholic Church, and the greateſt Part of the City are ſaved.

"This Misfortune, nevertheleſs, juſtly excites the Compaſſion of every one, and Nobody's more than the King's; but it is not to be aſcribed to our Troops. We ſpared the City but too much, eſpecially after the Examples of the contrary which the Enemy gave us at Zittau, Schweidnitz, and Cuſtrin, Towns reduced to Aſhes without Neceſſity, without any End to ſerve, and partly without any Effect. Saxony, therefore, muſt blame only her own Allies, and the Imprudence of Firing from the Steeples, and the ſtrange Meaſures of the Auſtrian Generals, who made no great Haſte to ſuccour a Town that can be ſupported only by the Preſence of a ſuperior Army, and which they, nevertheleſs, thought proper to defend in the ſame Manner as if it had been a regular Fortreſs, and which of Conſequence was wantonly expoſed to the Diſaſter that has juſt befallen it.

"The King having decamped on the 8th from Bautzen to turn towards Dreſden, it was not till the 19th, the Day on which the Fire began, that Marſhal Daun appeared again with his Army, which he had ſtrengthened by large Detachments drawn from the Corps under Laudohn and Beck. He took his Camp between the Villages of Schoenfeld and Weiſſig, a League from Dreſden. As, after the Return of the grand Auſtrian Army, the Duke of Holſtein, who occupied the Poſts of Nauendorff and Weiſſen-Hirſch, with a detached Body of Forces, to ſtraiten the Town on the other Side of the River, would have been ſurrounded by the Enemy's ſuperior Number, the King ordered him to croſs the Elbe. Marſhal Daun having by this Means a free Communication with Dreſden, and having come and encamped with his Army at the Place called the Barns; having alſo built two Bridges of Boats on the Elbe, and there being no longer any Hope of ſucceeding in the Siege, the King reſolved on the 21ſt to raiſe it.

"In the Night between the 21ſt and 22d, Marſhal Daun ſent 16 Battalions through the Town of Dreſden, who at Three in the Morning made a general Sally on the Troops that formed the Siege, doubtleſs with a View to ſeize our Artillery. But this Deſign ſucceeded ill. They indeed at firſt carried off ſome Piquets of the Regiment of Anhalt-Bernbourg; but they were ſoon repulſed with Vigour, and purſued to the Town with the Loſs of upwards of 1000 Men. We made, on this Occaſion, 200 Priſoners, among whom are General Nugent, and ſeveral Officers; and we did not loſe one Piece of Cannon.

"After drawing off all the Artillery employed in the Siege, the Head Quarters were tranſferred Yeſterday from Gruna to Leubnitz, and the Army came and encamped here. However, we are ſtill in Poſſeſſion of the Suburb of Pirna, the Great Garden, and the Camp of Plauen. Geral Laſci is ſtill encamped between Gros-Seidlitz and Dohna; the Army of the Empire behind Maxen; and Marſhal Daun at the Barns, on the other Side of the Elbe."

Hamburgh, July 22. General Laudohn is not gone to join Marſhal Daun, but has drawn nearer to the Oder, with about 35,000 Men, and has taken Poſſeſſion of Neumarck, Parckwitz, and Steinau. It is ſaid, that his Patroles have advanced even to the Gates of Breſlau and Glogau.

Prince Henry is in the Neighbourhood of Meſeritz, in the Poliſh Territory. His chief Object ſeems to be the hindering the Junction of the Ruſſians with General Laudohn. General Goltze being detached by his Royal Highneſs with a conſiderable Force, has taken Poſt near Kloſter-Paradys.

Francfort (upon the Oder) July 24. Part of the Ruſſian Army has entered Sileſia; but the Amount of the Corps is not known. Prince Henry is following them, in order to prevent, if poſſible, their Junction with the Auſtrians under Laudohn, which is well known to be their principal Deſign.

Saxony, July 25. As ſoon as Marſhal Daun arrived at Dreſden, he poured into that City 36 Battalions of freſh Troops, and planted 109 Pieces of Cannon, to ſupply the Place of thoſe which the Enemy had diſmounted. Two Days before the raiſing of the Siege, the Pruſſians brought up 12 additional Mortars to play upon the Old Town, which is reduced to a Heap of Aſhes and Ruins. The Suburbs met with the ſame Fate.

Paris, July 25. There is a Talk of ſending 10,000 Men immediately towards Normandy, but it is not ſaid how they are to be employed. However, there are certain Circumſtances which ſeem very much to engage the Attention of the Public.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

SIR, Warbourg, Auguſt 1.

"I have the Honour of acquainting your Majeſty with the Defeat of the Reſerve, under the Chevalier de Muy, who having paſſed the Dymel at Stadbergen, extended his Corps down the Banks of that River, in order to cut me off from Weſtphalia, whilſt M. de Broglio was advancing with his main Army towards my Camp at Kalle, and Prince Xavier with his Reſerve, on our Left, towards Caſſel. Hereupon I determined to leave General Kielmanſegge with a Body of Troops at Caſſel, for the Protection of that City, and to march myſelf with the Army, the Night of the 30th, in order to paſs the Dymel between Liebenau and Dringelberg; which was happily executed. The Hereditary Prince, who had paſſed the Dymel on the 29th, to go and reinforce General Sporcke (who was poſted ſince the 28th between Liebenau and Corbeke) reconnoitred the Poſition of the Chevalier de Muy, who from the 30th in the Morning was in Poſſeſſion of a very advantageous Camp, between Warbourg and Ochſendorff. It was agreed, that the Prince and M. Sporcke ſhould turn the Enemy's Left, whilſt I advanced with the Army upon their Front; which was done with all poſſible Succeſs; the Enemy being attacked almoſt in the ſame Inſtant by M. Sporcke and the Hereditary Prince, in Flank and in Rear. As the Infantry of the Army could not march faſt enough, to charge at the ſame Time, I ordered my Lord Granby to advance with the Cavalry of the Right. The Engliſh Artillery got up on a Gallop, and ſeconded the Attack in a ſurprizing Manner. All the Troops have done well, and particularly the Engliſh. The French Cavalry, tho' very numerous, retreated, as ſoon as ours advanced to charge them, excepting only three Squadrons, that kept their Ground, but were ſoon broke. A Part of the Engliſh Cavalry then fell upon the Enemy's Infantry, which ſuffered extremely; and particularly the Regiment of Lockman Swiſs. I ordered an Attack to be made on the Town of Warbourg, by the Legion Britannique; and the Enemy finding themſelves thus attacked upon their two Flanks, in Front and in Rear, retired with the utmoſt Precipitation, and with the Loſs of many Men, as well from the Fire of our Artillery, as from the Attacks of the Cavalry. Many were drowned in the Dymel, in attempting to ford it. The Enemy's Loſs in Men is very conſiderable; I cannot exactly aſcertain it; but it is ſuppoſed, that they have left Fifteen Hundred Men upon the Field of Battle; and the Amount of the Priſoners we have made, probably exceeds that Number. We have taken ten Pieces of Cannon, with ſome Colours. The Loſs on our Side is very moderate, and falls chiefly upon the brave Battalion of Maxwell's Engliſh Grenadiers, which did Wonders. Colonel Beckwith, who commanded the Brigade, formed of Engliſh Grenadiers and Scotch Highlanders, diſtinguiſhed himſelf greatly, and has been wounded in the Head.

My Lord Granby, with the Engliſh Cavalry, has contributed extremely to the Succeſs of the Day. I charge Captain Faucitt, his Lordſhip's Aid-de-Camp, with this Letter, to be delivered to your Majeſty, and to give your Majeſty a more particular Account of the Action, from his own Mouth, till I can have the Honour of laying at your Majeſty's Feet a more extenſive and circumſtantial Relation. I am, with the moſt profound Reſpect,

Sir,

Your Majeſty's moſt humble,

And moſt obedient Couſin and Servant,

Ferdinand Duc de Brunſwick & de Lunebourg."

Magdebourg, Auguſt 2. The King having remained before Dreſden till the 20th of July, without being able to bring M. Daun, or Laſci, or the Army of the Empire, to a Battle; and his Majeſty being unwilling to do further Damage to that City, which he could not beſiege in Form, retired with his Army towards Keſſeldorff, where he remained till the 30th. That Day, his Army filed off towards Meiſſen, where the Head Quarters were eſtabliſhed. But ſeveral Motions indicate, that he intends to march again towards Sileſia.

Head Quarters of the King of Pruſſia at Dalwitz, Aug. 2. On the 29th we left Leubnitz. Yeſterday we paſſed the Elbe, without Moleſtation, and came to this Place. Tomorrow we ſhall probably begin our March again for Sileſia. Marſhal Daun has alſo put his Army in Motion, and is advancing by Biſchofswerden towards Bautzen.

The King has left 15,000 Men under General Hulſen in the intrenched Camp of Schlettow. The Auſtrians under Laſci have taken Poſt at Reichenberg, and the Army of the Empire at Keſſelſdorff.

Vienna, Auguſt 2. On the 26th ult. the old Fortreſs of Glatz was taken Sword in Hand. The new one ſurrendered at Diſcretion. The Magazine, of which our Troops have made themſelves Maſters there, was immenſe. We loſt at the Siege four Officers, and 64 Men; and 7 Officers, and 138 Men, were wounded.

Hamburgh, Aug. 8. After the Taking of Glatz, Gen. Draſkowitz advanced towards Neiſs, as well to ſtraiten that Place, as to facilitate the Junction of the Ruſſians, who are advancing by Kaliſch and Milritz, towards Breſlau.

Hague, Aug. 12. The laſt Letters from Hambourg adviſe, That Prince Henry of Pruſſia had made ſeveral Motions ſince the 1ſt Inſtant, which indicated a Deſign of marching to the Auſtrians under General Laudohn, and attacking them, before they can effect a Junction with the Ruſſians.

Magdebourg, Auguſt 9. We are informed, that on the 30th of July general Laudohn advanced with his Army up to Breſlau, and ſummoned ſeveral Times the City to ſurrender, adding terrible Menaces in caſe of a Refuſal. Major General Tauentzien, Governor of the Place, having conſtantly refuſed to capitulate, Laudohn began the 1ſt of Auguſt to throw Bombs and Granades into it, whereby the Royal Palace, and Part of the City, from Albert-ſtreet to the New-market, were reduced to Aſhes. During this Bombardment the Croats advanced to the Palliſades, but were driven away by the Fire from the Ramparts. The next Day Gen. Laudohn again ſummoned the Governor to ſurrender, and was anſwered as before. The ſame Day, and the 3d, he made ſeveral Marches and Counter marches, but attempted nothing further againſt Breſlau. The 4th he retired, marching by the Way of Liſſa and Schweidnitz. It is ſaid General Laudohn had no heavy Artillery, and no more Bombs than what he ſpent againſt the City, otherwiſe he would have done it more Damage.

About 4 or 5000 Ruſſians have got into Pomerania, have inveſted Coſlin, Corlin, and Belgard, and demanded large Contributions from thoſe Places. They give out that they ſhall be joined ſoon by a conſiderable Corps, ſufficient to undertake the Siege of Colberg.

The King arrived the Day before Yeſterday at Bautzen, upon whoſe Approach the Auſtrians retired, firſt ſetting Fire to their Magazine, whereby a conſiderable Part of the Town ſuffered greatly.

Paris, Aug. 8. Letters from Peterſbourg adviſe, that Count Soltikoff has a little delayed the Execution of his Plan, thro' the Want of Proviſion and Forage; and for Fear of augmenting the Engliſh and Pruſſian Party in Poland, he has acted, by Expreſs Orders from the Czarina, with the utmoſt Caution in Poſnania, and conſequently has retarded his Marches.

Utrecht, Aug. 12. They write from Stralſund, that the Swediſh Army will immediately begin its March againſt the King of Pruſſia's Dominions. It will conſiſt of 22,000 fighting Men; 6000 are to cover Pomerania, and 16,000 are to fall upon the Pruſſians; the whole of whom, in that Dutchy, does not amount to 5000.

Amſterdam, Aug. 14. The French found in the City of Munden (which they carried, Sword in Hand, the 1ſt Inſtant) 12,000 Sacks of Flour, 350,000 Rations of Oats, 15,000 lb. Weight of Gun-powder, beſides 30 Waggon Loads of Proviſions belonging to the Engliſh, much Equipage, and many Pieces of Cannon. They took, at the ſame Time, upon the Fulda, 30 Boats, laden with Proviſions and Ammunition. The Garriſon conſiſted only of 350 Men, who were made Priſoners of War.

Hanover, Aug. 8. Three Battalions of Engliſh Guards arrived on the 30th ult. at Bremen. We expect four more Regiments of Infantry from England very ſoon.

Prince Xavier of Saxony, at the Head of a Body of French Troops, has made himſelf Maſter of Caſſel, Munden, Gottingen, and Eimbach, and is actually going to lay Siege to Hamelen.

Utrecht, Aug. 15. Letters from Hanover adviſe, that the French Troops which had got into Eimbeck, have been expelled by Luckner's Corps. From another Quarter there is a Report, that the Reſerve of the French Army, under Prince Xaverius of Saxony, has advanced as far as Hanover. A Confirmation of both Events was waited for.

King of Pruſſia's Head Quarters at Buntzlau, in Sileſia, Aug. 7. The Army quitted Dalwitz the 3d Inſtant, and arrived here this Day, having marched 40 Leagues in five Days. By this rapid March the King is got into Sileſia before Marſhal Daun, tho' that General was at Bautzen the firſt Inſtant, which ſhews that it was not owing to the prudent Marches of the Marſhal that his Majeſty did not laſt Month penetrate into this Province, but to Reaſons which did not depend upon the Enemy. It may be imagined what Difficulties we had to ſurmount, when it is conſidered that the Army, encumbered with above 2000 Waggons, paſſed the Elbe, the Spree, the Neiſs, the Queiſs and the Bober, at the ſame Time that the Auſtrian Army was on one Side of us, under General Reid, near Bautzen; Gen. Laſcy's Corps behind us; and that of Gen. Beck in Front. However, none of theſe different Corps dared to attack us; and, on the other Hand, we ſurprized ſeveral of the Enemy's little Poſts, and took a great many Priſoners. We took 100 from Gen. Beck's Corps when we paſſed the Neiſs at Burkenbruck, and obliged that Corps to make a precipitate Retreat towards Braunau. Major-General Krokow, who was detached this Day with ſome Dragoons and Huſſars, is ſending in Priſoners every Moment, from the Parties of Beck and Laudohn, which are over-running the Low Country of Sileſia, and raiſing heavy Contributions.

Prince Henry having, by Means of a forced March, obliged General Laudohn to raiſe the Siege of Breſlau, is returned againſt the Ruſſians, to prevent their penetrating further into Sileſia.

Head Quarters of the Allied Army at Warbourg, Aug. 10. Our Army keeps in the ſame Situation, and that of Marſhal Broglio is encamped over-againſt us, within the Diſtance of very little more than Cannon ſhot. Though the two Armies are ſeparated by the Dymel, that Rivulet is fordable almoſt in every Part. We are employed in fortifying our Camp, though we doubt whether the French will dare to attack us. General Sporcken occupies the ſame Camp. Stadberg is a Poſt which is alternately occupied by our Troops and the Enemy; but we have ſo well guarded the Avenues to it, that the French cannot become Maſters of it without Loſs.

LONDON, JULY 29.

Sunday Night an Expreſs arrived at the Earl of Holderneſſe's Office, with an Account, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwic having attacked the Left Wing of the French Army, had made ſix whole Battalions Priſoners of War; they were commanded by Count Glaubitz, and the Prince of Anhalt Coethen, who are alſo taken, as well as their Cannon, Tents, and Baggage. Elliot's Light Dragoons behaved with the greateſt Bravery in this Affair.

The Malecontents of Corſica, who have by a Manifeſto, dated the 20th of May laſt, declared War both by Sea and Land againſt the Genoeſe, have fitted out Privateers, which have already taken ſeven Veſſels laden with Merchandize, and two others with Cattle, deſtined for Baſtia.

July 31. By Letters from Germany, we are told, that General Elliot, and Lord Pembroke, the Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel of the Light Horſe, had an Invitation to Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters, the Day of the Engagement, which coming on very ſuddenly, that Corps was commanded by Major Erſkine of that Regiment. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwic went through the Ranks uncovered, and thanked all the Officers and Soldiers for their Bravery.

Aug. 2. It is acknowledged in Letters from Vienna, that never any War coſt ſo many Men, as the preſent; the ſingle Archdutchy of Auſtria hath already raiſed 36,000

All the Letters from France adviſe, that the Miniſtry are made very uneaſy by the Difficulties that attend the ſupplying of their Colonies with warlike Stores and Proviſions, which are daily ſolicited with the utmoſt Importunity.

Aug. 5. The Tranſports with the Guards on board, were ſeen on Friday laſt, off Yarmouth.

Copy of a Paragraph in a Letter from the Earl of Pembroke to Field Marſhal Lord Viſcount Ligonier, and ſent by his Lordſhip to the Counteſs Dowager of Pembroke.

Saxenhauſen Camp, July 20, 1760.

"Having before troubled your Lordſhip with a Letter, ſignifying the Honour the Duke [Prince Ferdinand] had done me, in ſending for me to Camp from off the March before the Regiment, to order me to act here as Major-General, by which I had the Misfortune to miſs being with the Regiment which did ſo wonderfully; only beg Leave now to incloſe Part of this Day's Orders, hoping the very great Merit of my Friend Erſkine will not be overlooked."

Saxenhauſen Camp, July 20, 1760.

"His Serene Highneſs orders it to be publickly teſtified "to the whole Army, how much he is charmed and ſatisfied with the good Conduct and Valour of the Corps "that fought on the 16th Inſtant, under the Orders of the "Hereditary Prince.

"The Praiſes his Serene Highneſs gave of them to the "Duke were ſuch, that nothing can be ſaid in Addition "to them.

"His Serene Highneſs therefore gives his beſt Thanks "to thoſe brave Troops, and particularly to Elliot's Re"giment, which was allowed by every Body preſent to "have done Wonders.

"His Serene Highneſs the Prince could not enough "commend to the Duke the Bravery, good Conduct, and "good Countenance, with which that Regiment fought.

"His Serene Highneſs deſires much to be able to find "Means to acknowlege to Major Erſkine principally, who "was at the Head of that Regiment, and led it ſo gal"lantly, as well as to the Officers and Men, his real Satis"faction, and to have it in his Power to do them Service.

"He deſires thoſe Gentlemen to furniſh him with an Op"portunity of doing it, and he ſhall ſeize it with Pleaſure."

It is ſaid that the Marſhal de Broglio ſent a Meſſage to Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, complaining that Elliot's Regiment refuſed to give Quarter when it was aſked; and that the Prince replied, that that Regiment being lately raiſed, was unacquainted with the Laws of Arms, but that they would ſoon know better; and that he would give proper Orders, to prevent ſuch Behaviour for the future.

Auguſt 7. There are now a great Number of Tranſports lying in Readineſs to take in the Troops at Portſmouth.

Admiral Pocock is ſoon expected Home from the Eaſt-Indies.

We are well informed, that Captain-Lieutenant Baſil, of Elliot's Light Dragoons, and the Horſe he was mounted on, received nine Balls in the late Engagement with the French: He lived about an Hour afterwards, and before he expired, had the Satisfaction of ſeeing his Regiment victorious, with the French Priſoners; and then, like another WOLFE, declared he died ſatisfied.

Auguſt 9. A Letter from on board one of His Majeſty's Ships, cruiſing off the Iſle of Oleron, July 18, ſays, "We have certain Advice, that all the flat bottomed Boats in France are fitting out. A Spaniard, that came from Nantz, has taken an Oath, that there are ſix of them there ready for ſailing; and ſays they have three Keels, are as broad and long as a 50 Gun Ship, and carry 22 Twenty-four Pounders. He and his Mate have taken their Oaths, that they ſaw one rigged in the Form of a Ship, and the others as Galliot Hoys. They likewiſe inform us, there are 90 Sail of ſmall flat bottomed Boats fitting out at Havre de Grace. I believe they are intended for Ireland. They draw only ten Feet Water when all in."

We hear that ſeveral Men of War, which were ordered to be laid up, will be again put into Commiſſion, and that Orders are given to finiſh thoſe on the Stocks as ſoon as poſſible.

They write from Madrid, that two Bomb Veſſels were ordered to join the ſix Men of War ſaid to be deſtined againſt the Algerines; and that his Catholic Majeſty was about making a numerous Promotion of General Officers.

We hear from Quiberon Bay, that Admiral Boſcawen has taken Poſſeſſion of an Iſland near the River Vannes, which is about a Mile long, and Half a Mile broad, and on it has erected two or three Tents for the Uſe of the Sick, and has planted a Garden with all Kinds of Vegetables for them.

Auguſt 12. It is ſaid there is Advice, that the Forces which ſailed from hence, are landed at Stade.

Notwithſtanding the great Advantages juſt gained over the French, it is reported that they are in Poſſeſſion of the City of Caſſel. The French, upon meeting with a Reſiſtance from the Troops in that City, immediately fired into it with red hot Balls, which ſet Fire to ſeveral Houſes; upon which Prince Ferdinand ſent them Orders to ſurrender the City, rather than have it deſtroyed by ſuch inhuman Proceedings.

A Letter from Paris ſays, "You are not to be ſurpriſed that the Count d'Affry hath as yet taken no Step which can give Room to conclude that he is furniſhed with Inſtructions relative to an Accommodation between our Court and that of Great-Britain. That Ambaſſador, on his leaving Paris, received from the Miniſtry two Plans; one for a general Pacification; and the other for a ſeparate Peace with England; with expreſs Orders not to communicate a Tittle of them to any Perſon whatſoever, till he ſhould receive further Orders. From whence it is inferred, that our Court wants to ſee what Turn the King of Pruſſia's Affairs will take, before it comes to a definitive Reſolution; and agreeably thereto will ſignify to its Ambaſſador which Plan he is to produce."

Another Letter from Paris ſays, "That the laſt Propoſals of Peace made by England were judged too hard; that therefore the King had no Mind to accept them; that the Propoſal of an Accommodation vaniſhed as the Seaſon advanced; that the Miniſtry waited only for an Anſwer to a Letter they had tranſmitted to the Britiſh Court, to lay aſide all Thoughts of Peace till the Armies ſhould go into Winter Quarters; that as their Troops diſcovered the greateſt Alacrity, and were in the beſt Order, they expected that as the Country of Heſſe was open by the taking of Dillenbourg, their Armies would not only overrun that Country, but, in ſpite of all Obſtacles, force their Way into the Electorate of Hanover."

Auguſt 14. We hear a Regiment of Foot, and ſeveral Independent Companies, will ſoon ſail for Quebec.

There is Advice that the French Squadron which engaged Admiral Pocock, in the Eaſt-Indies, is ſafely arrived at the Cape of Good Hope; where they received a freſh Supply of Proviſions and Stores from the Dutch.

Auguſt 16. On Wedneſday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York ſet out for Portſmouth.

Some Independent Companies are going to be ſent to Guadaloupe.

Thurſday laſt Major-General Stanwix arrived from America, and Yeſterday waited upon his Majeſty, at Kenſington, and was moſt graciouſly received.

The laſt Letters from Vienna poſitively aſſert, that General Fouquet's ſtrong Box was found among his Baggage. Among many other Letters written with the King of Pruſſia's own Hand, they ſay, there is one in which his Majeſty tells Fouquet, that he ſhould find the utmoſt Difficulty in ſupporting himſelf, during this Campaign, againſt ſo many powerful Enemies; and that what grieved him moſt, was the Loſs of ſo many brave Generals, and the Ruin of almoſt all his Cavalry, which he could not replace.

It is expected that Colonel Clive will ſoon be made a Peer.

Auguſt 19. Saturday laſt the Earl Marſhal of Scotland, late Miniſter from his Pruſſian Majeſty to the Court of Spain, was introduced to His Majeſty, and was moſt graciouſly received.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Auguſt 17.

"Thurſday ſet Sail, but returned again, Admiral Hawke in the Royal George; and on Friday ſailed again for the Bay, to relieve Admiral Boſcawen, who is daily expected here.

"The Greyhound, Captain Francis, is going to Quebec with Diſpatches."

Admiral Rodney, who was lately forced by a Storm to Spithead, had juſt before, while he was lying off Havre de Grace, to watch the Mouth of the Seine, driven aſhore five flat-bottomed Boats, loaded with Cannon and Shot, and deſtroyed them with the Fort at Port Baſſin: At the ſame Time ten others, with great Difficulty, eſcaped into the River Orne, leading to Caen. The Enemy had the Confidence to ſail from Harfleur in the Middle of the Day, with their Colours flying, the Hills on each Side of the River, and Walls of Havre de Grace, covered with Spectators, who were aſtoniſhed that the Engliſh ſquadron made no Motion whatever. The Admiral knowing it would be to no Purpoſe till the Veſſels had paſſed the River Orne, as they had it in their Power to take Shelter in ſeveral ſmall Ports, contented himſelf with giving Directions to his Squadron to have all ready, the Moment he ſhould make the Signal to chace. When the Enemy had got the Length of Caen River, they kept ſtanding backward and forward upon the Shoals, and he plainly perceived intended to puſh for it after Dark, whereupon he ordered his ſmall Veſſels the Moment it was dark, to make all the Sail poſſible for the Mouth of the River Orne, to cut off the Enemy's Retreat, and with his other Ships made the utmoſt Diſpatch, without Signal, for the ſteep Coaſt of Port Baſſin. This had the deſired Effect, the Enemy were met by two of his Squadron, diſguiſed like Dutchmen, off Point Percee, who turned them. The Enemy perceiving their Retreat cut off, run aſhore, and met the Fate juſt deſcribed.

They are remarkable fine Veſſels, upwards of 100 Feet long, and capable to contain from 3 to 500 Men, for a Night's Run. This Succeſs has had the deſired Effect, the Enemy having unloaded 100 others that were ready to ſail, and ſent them all up again to Rouen. Each Veſſel carries two 18 Pounders, and as they were ſcuttled when run aſhore, the Admiral's People could not get them off, eſpecially as the Enemy's Troops appeared numerous, and were entrenched ſo as to flank the Landing.

A Captain of a Ship, lately arrived from the Baltic, gives an Account, that the combined Fleets of Sweden, Denmark, and Ruſſia, are cruiſing off the Coaſt of Schonen, to prevent any foreign Fleet entering the Sound.

It is ſaid that the Regiment of Welſh Volunteers, 600 Men compleat, and brave Fellows, are going the firſt Opportunity for Quebec.

Auguſt 21. The Tranſports now in the Downs, bound for Quebec, have on board a large Quantity of Bedding, Cloathing, and other Neceſſaries for the Uſe of the Garriſon of that Place.

They write from Hanover of the 10th Inſt. that the Reſidue of Elliot's Regiment of Light Horſe, after leaving 80 wounded Men at Caſſel, and 40 at Munden, were arrived that Day in that Capital.

A Letter from an Hanoverian Officer of Diſtinction, who was in the late Action on the 31ſt, ſays, "Yeſterday was a glorious Day. Our Troops, particularly the Engliſh Cavalry, and the Hanoverian Grenadiers, performed Prodigies of Valour. The Enemy were totally routed. We took 22 Pieces of Cannon, and made 2800 Priſoners. The French left 2400 dead in the Field, and upwards of 3000 wounded. We loſt no General or Colonel; and our Killed and Wounded ſcarce exceed 300."

Advices from Marſhal Broglio's Head Quarters at Oberluſtingen, dated the 5th Inſt. at Five in the Evening, run thus: "We have as yet got no juſt Account of what paſſed near Warbourg on the 31ſt. The Motives for concealing the Particulars of that unfortunate Event, may be eaſily gueſſed. All we know is, that the Brigades of Bourbonnois, la Couronne, Rochefort, and Planta, have ſuffered conſiderably, and that Fiſcher's People are almoſt all cut off. Bourbonnois had 55 Officers killed or wounded; la Couronne 71, and Rochefort 62. The Regiment of Rouergue was an equal Sufferer."

A Letter from Germany ſays, that in the Affair of the 31ſt, the Marquis of Granby, having dropt his Hat, broke the French Lines three Times bareheaded.

Aug. 23. Four Thouſand more Troops are ordered for Germany, and will embark next Week.

By a Letter from the Allied Army, dated the 14th, we learn, that a Body of 2000 French, poſted between Munden and Caſſel, to cover the Count de Luſace's haſty Retreat out of Hanover, were attacked on the 12th by a Detachment ſent by Prince Ferdinand; and one Half made Priſoners, and the reſt cut to Pieces.

Copy of a Letter from the Marquis of Granby to the Earl of Holderneſſe.

My LORD,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that I have the Honour of acquainting your Lordſhip of the Succeſs of the Hereditary Prince, Yeſterday Morning.

General Sporcken's Corps marched from the Camp at Kalle to Liebenau, about Four in the Afternoon of the 29th; the Hereditary Prince followed, the ſame Evening, with a Body of Troops, among which were the two Engliſh Battalions of Grenadiers, the two of Highlanders, and four Squadrons of Dragoons, Cope's and Conway's.

The Army was under Arms all Day on the 30th; and, about Eleven at Night, marched off in ſix Columns to Liebenau. About Five the next Morning, the whole Army aſſembled, and formed on the Heights near Corbeke. The Hereditary Prince was, at this Time, marching in two Columns, in order to turn the Enemy's left Flank; which he did, by marching to Donhelbourg, leaving Klein-Eder on his Left, and forming in two Lines, with his Left towards Doſſel, and his Right near Grimbeck, oppoſite to the Left Flank of the Enemy, whoſe Poſition was, with the Left to the high Hill near Oſſendorff, and their Right to Warbourg, into which Place they had flung Fiſcher's Corps. The Hereditary Prince immediately attacked the Enemy's Flank; and, after a very ſharp Diſpute, obliged them to give Way; and, by a continual Fire, kept forcing them to fall back upon Warbourg. The Army was, at this Time, marching with the greateſt Diligence to attack the Enemy in Front; but the Infantry could not get up in Time; General Waldegrave, at the Head of the Britiſh, preſſed their March as much as poſſible; no Troops could ſhew more Eagerneſs to get up, than they ſhewed. Many of the Men, from the Heat of the Weather, and over-ſtraining themſelves to get on, through moraſſy and very difficult Ground, ſuddenly dropped down on their March.

General Moyſtyn, who was at the Britiſh Cavalry that was formed on the Right of our Infantry, on the other Side of a large Wood, upon receiving the Duke's Orders to come up with the Cavalry as faſt as poſſible, made ſo much Expedition, bringing them up at a full Trot, though the Diſtance was near five Miles, that the Britiſh Cavalry had the Happineſs to arrive in Time, to ſhare the Glory of the Day, having ſucceſsfully charged, ſeveral Times, both the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry.

I ſhould do Injuſtice to the General Officers, to every Officer and private Man, of the Cavalry, if I did not beg your Lordſhip would aſſure His Majeſty, that nothing could exceed their gallant Behaviour on that Occaſion.

Captain Philips made ſo much Expedition with his Cannon, as to have an Opportunity, by a ſevere Cannonade, to oblige thoſe who had paſſed the Dymel, and were formed on the other Side, to retire with the utmoſt Precipitation.

I received his Serene Highneſs's Orders Yeſterday in the Evening, to paſs the River after them, with the 2 Britiſh Battalions, and 10 Squadrons; and am now encamped upon the Heights of Wilda, about 4 Miles from Warbourg, on the Heights of which their grand Army is encamped.

M. de Muy is now retiring from the Heights of Volkmeiſſen, where he lay under Arms laſt Night, towards Wolfſhagen. I cannot give your Lordſhip an Account of the Loſs on either Side. Captain Faucitt, whom I ſend off with this, ſhall get all the Intelligence he can upon this Head before he ſets off. I am, &c. GRANBY.

P. S. Saturday Morning Six o'Clock. As I had not an Opportunity of ſending off Captain Faucitt ſo ſoon as I intended, I opened my Letter to acquaint your Lordſhip, that I have juſt joined the grand Army with my Detachment.

Francfort, July 15. The Deſtination of the Wirtemberg Troops is no longer a Secret. They are to be taken into the Emperor's private Pay, and march into Franconia, to cover that Circle, and to replace thoſe under General Luſinſky, who are to join the Army of the Empire in Saxony.

Florence, July 5. A few Days ago a Courier arrived from Vienna, with the Ratification of a Treaty, by which the Eſtates degli Præſidii, on the Coaſt of Tuſcany, are ceded to the Emperor, and the Empreſs Queen makes over to the Infant Don Philip, the Right ſhe acquired, by the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, to the Durchies of Parma and Placentia.

Rome, July 5. The Miniſter of Portugal having demanded an Audience of the Pope, the 2d Inſtant, it was refuſed him, becauſe a Courier arrived a few Hours before from Cardinal Acciajuoli, with Advice, that he had been obliged to leave Liſbon. Soon after another Courier arrived at the Houſe of the Portugueſe Miniſter, who immediately ordered all the Portugueſe to quit Rome. It is computed there are 2000 of them in this City.

Cardinal Corſini having undertaken to compromiſe Matters, the Miniſter, and all that are dependent on the Crown of Portugal, are not yet ſet out; and Yeſterday Morning a Courier was ſent away to Liſbon with a Plan of Accommodation. In the mean Time it is agreed that the Portugueſe ſhall ſuſpend their Departure from hence for three Months.

The Neapolitan Troops ſtill encamp on the Confines of the Eccleſiaſtical State, and the King of Sardinia's Army is encamped on the Banks of the Po.

Hamburgh, July 11. All our Veſſels which were detained in the Ports of France have been releaſed.

Rome, July 5. The King of Sardinia hath obtained of the Court of Rome, that the Iſland from which he takes his Title, ſhall be no longer conſidered as a Fief of the Holy See, nor that he ſhall be obliged to do Homage for it as ſuch.

Hague, July 18. Though different News Papers, particularly ſome of thoſe printed at London, have publiſhed, that General Yorke had received Orders from his Court, to complain to the States-General of the Behaviour of the Dutch in the Eaſt-Indies, it is certain that this Miniſter hath taken no Step relating thereto, nor is it probable that he ever will take any, the whole proceeding only from a little commercial Jealouſy between the Subjects of the two Nations, concerning the Salt-petre Trade of the Dutch. The Engliſh relate the Affair in their own Way. The Truth is, the Engliſh, above a Year before the Broil happened, made the Nabob of Bengal revolt from the Grand Mogul, and, by ſupporting him in his Rebellion, gained him over to trade with them, to the Excluſion of all other Nations. Upon which the Governor of Batavia ſent ſeveral Veſſels to Bengal, to try to bring the Nabob to Reaſon, and even, if neceſſary, to employ Force for that Purpoſe, in which they would have ſucceeded, had it not been for the Engliſh, who getting Notice of their Deſign, attacked the Dutch, and took their Ships, which, however, have been reſtored to the Governor of Batavia, on his paying 100,000 l. Sterling. This is the Manner in which the Story is told here. Not one Veſſel only, but two have been diſpatched from the Texel to the Eaſt-Indies to get exact Information of it.

Hague, July 29. Several Letters adviſe, that the Allies evacuated Paderborn on the 18th, and that the French again took Poſſeſſion of it.

Hanover, July 25. The Enemy who entered Paderborn, have not thought proper to fix there.

Conſtantinople, June 18. The Plague has not been at Aleppo for 12 Years; at preſent it carries off every third Perſon. This is not the only Calamity which that City labours under. Numerous Gangs of Villains infeſt its Neighbourhood, who rob and murder all that come in their Way. The Baſſa's Lieutenant being ſent in Purſuit of them with his Troops, they defeated him, and took him Priſoner, and after cutting off his Ears and Noſe, ſent him back to Aleppo.

According to Letters from Smyrna of the 10th of June, the Plague makes equal Havock in that City. All the Europeans of Fortune have fled to the Country.

Paris, July 21. The Deputies from the Parliament of Normandy are expected at Verſailles by the 30th, with new Remonſtrances, couched in very ſtrong Terms. It is therein demonſtrated, that of 80 Millions paid by the Subject, not above 28 Millions come into the King's Coffers.

General Sporcken's Head Quarters at Volkmarſen, July 22. The Activity of our Huſſars and Hunters on every Side renders it very difficult for the Enemy's Army to get Proviſions, the Want of which muſt ſoon oblige them to move either forwards or backwards, in which caſe a Battle ſeems inevitable. General Luckner is detached with his Huſſars upon ſome Expedition.

Stutgard, the Capital of Wirtemberg, July 23. Our Troops began to be in Motion this Day. A Body of 12,000 Foot and Horſe, with a Train of 40 Pieces of Cannon, will march through the Countries of Hohenlohe, Anſpach, and Wurtzbourg, into Saxony. They are to act as a ſeparate Corps, under the Command of the Duke our Sovereign, who heads them himſelf, in Support of the common Cauſe, at his own private Expence.

Lower Luſatia, Auguſt 3. The Auſtrian Light Troops begin to infeſt this Province again, and have already laid ſeveral little Towns under Contribution: Some of their Parties had even advanced a few Days ago within a little Diſtance of Berlin; but ſome Detachments of Huſſars being ſent againſt them, they made the beſt of their Way back to the main Army.

Francfort, Auguſt 7. Ever ſince the Action near Warbourg, a great Number of French Officers and Soldiers wounded, have daily been brought to this Place; and we hear that 1200 were carried to Hannau; who have ſince been ſent by Water to Oppenheim.

Paris, Auguſt 8. We learn from Vienna, that the Wirtemberg Troops are to act againſt the Dominions of Saxe-Gotha; and the Troops under General Luzinſky againſt the Dutchy of Brunſwic.

Leipſic, July 24. The Pruſſians do the Garriſon of Dreſden the Juſtice to own, that they defended themſelves with great Bravery. The poor Town has ſuffered much. The Palace of Moſchinſka, the Church of the Holy Croſs, the Suburb of Williſch, and a good Part of the Old Town, are reduced to Aſhes.

Naples, July 15. Our Galleys are cruizing off Sardinia, on the Corſairs of Algiers, who dare not return Home for Fear of falling in with the five Spaniſh Men of War, and the Spaniſh Frigate, which are cruizing off Algiers, waiting the Dey's Anſwer to the Catholic King's Propoſal, to exchange the Spaniſh Slaves at Algiers, againſt an equal Number of Turks. If the Anſwer be not favourable, thoſe five Men of War will be joined by twelve others, and a proper Number of Fireſhips and Bomb-veſſels, in order to proceed to the Bombardment of Algiers. It is ſaid that the Algerines being informed of the threatened Blow, are preparing for their Defence; and have chained their Slaves two and two.

Hague, Auguſt 4. Letters from Genoa of the 12th ult. adviſe, that ſeveral Veſſels had ſailed for Corſica with Troops and warlike Stores, the Republic being firmly determined to humble the Malecontents.

Paris, Auguſt 8. There is nothing intereſting in the Accounts from Italy. The Quarrel between the Pope and the Genoeſe is on the Point of being adjuſted; and it is hoped that the Difference between the Courts of Rome and Portugal will not be carried any great Lengths.

Breſlau, Auguſt 8. Prince Henry, after having obliged the Auſtrians to retire from before this City, has paſſed the Oder, in order to meet the Ruſſians, whoſe Army is Part of it encamped near Militſch. General Laudohn was ſeverely harraſſed in his Retreat by Major General Werner, who took from him about 300 Priſoners, Part of whom are the Archduke Joſeph's Regiment of Dragoons. It is ſaid that the Count de Caramelli, an Auſtrian Major General, loſt his Life in one of theſe Skirmiſhes.

Lower Sileſia, Auguſt 8. Upon the Arrival of the King of Pruſſia's Army at Buntzlau, Marſhal Daun paſſed the Elbe with his, and has likewiſe entered Sileſia by Lauban. His Head Quarters are at preſent at Lowenberg.

Hanover, Auguſt 14. The Garriſon of Oſnabrug being compoſed only of Invalids, was ordered to evacuate that Place, and the French have accordingly taken Poſſeſſion of it. A Detachment of the Garriſon of Weſel has alſo taken Poſſeſſion of the County of Benthem, after ſeizing the Caſtle, where they took 70 Priſoners.

Things have been pretty quiet upon our Frontiers ſince General Luckner obliged the French to retire from Embeck. The Enemy's Troops and ours alternately occupy Nordheim. Our Hunters Yeſterday attacked a Detachment of the Enemy near Nordheim, diſperſed them, and took 300 Priſoners, with 10 Officers. The Corps de Reſerve under the Command of Prince Xavierus of Saxony, retreated the 9th Inſtant, as far as Adelepſen, near Munden.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Warbourg, Aug. 12. After the Defeat of the Corps commanded by M. de Muy the 31ſt of July, near Warbourg, the Remains of which fled to Corbach, Marſhal Broglio came and encamped with the main Army oppoſite Warbourg, with his Head Quarters at Oberliſting. M. de St. Victor, with 2000 Volunteers, was poſted in the Wood of Sallabourg, which fills up the Corner formed by the Dymel and the Weſer. Prince Ferdinand gave Orders to drive them from thence, on which Account M. de Donop marched there the Day before Yeſterday in the Evening, and attacked them Yeſterday at Seven in the Morning, with ſo much Succeſs, that after about an Hour's Engagement, he defeated and diſperſed the whole Corps, took three Pieces of Cannon, and above 200 Priſoners; and the Number of the Slain was very conſiderable.

The Count de Luſace, after having occupied the Town of Caſſel, which we had evacuated, afterwards paſſed the Defile of Munden, and encamped with 20 Battalions, and 30 Squadrons, at Dransfeld, half Way on the Road to Gottingen. General Luckner is at Eimbeck. On the 9th he killed the Enemy upwards of 50 Men, and took 37 Priſoners, and among them five Officers. The 10th he attacked a Detachment near Saltzerhaiden, 64 of whom he left dead upon the Spot, and took 80 Priſoners, among whom were ſeven Officers. Yeſterday near Nordheim he forced a Detachment of 332 Horſe, under the Command of M. Vander Meer, to lay down their Arms, and ſurrender Priſoners of War. Theſe Succeſſes are, we hope, the Preludes to ſome deciſive Stroke.

The March of the Wirtemberg Troops has met with ſome Obſtacles. The Duke refuſed to march unleſs he was allowed to ſhare in the Contributions which were to be raiſed in the Territories of the Houſe of Brunſwic, &c. which it was not thought proper to conſent to; but he has Leave to plunder the flat Country, and to appropriate to himſelf whatever he can get by that Means; which ſeems to ſatisfy his Serene Highneſs. His Troops were to arrive the 19th at Meinungen, where they are to begin their Exploits.

LONDON, JULY 29.

Friday Afternoon freſh Orders were iſſued for eight Men more out of each Company of the three Regiments of Foot Guards, to get immediately ready to follow thoſe who went off in the Morning for Graveſend, in order to embark for Germany.

The whole Reinforcement intended to be ſent will amount, it is ſaid, to 10,000 effective Men, excluſive of Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers, and Drums.

The Rope-houſes and Store-houſes, that were conſumed by the late dreadful Fire at Portſmouth, are to be forthwith rebuilt on a new Plan, drawn up by an experienced Engineer, for their greater Security.

The Utrecht Gazette tells us, in an Article from Naples, "That on the 16th of June, about Four in the Afternoon, under the Sea of Portici, within Sight of Naples, there was a moſt terrible Earthquake: The Waters divided, and the People ſaw the Bottom dry, during the Space of two Minutes."

The King of Spain has ſuppreſſed the Havanna Company.

They write from Paris, that the Archbiſhops of Paris and Narbonne, and the other Prelates, who were at the Head of the late Aſſembly of the Clergy, having been ſent for to Court, waited on the King accordingly, on the 14th, when his Majeſty ſignified to them, 'That the Body 'of the Clergy, throughout his Kingdom, muſt ſupply 'him immediately with One Hundred Millions of Livres; 'and that the Count de St. Florentin, his Miniſter, would 'further explain to them his Intentions, and his Motives 'for this Demand.'

Letters by Yeſterday's Mails adviſe, that they work Night and Day at Dunkirk in fitting out, at the Expence of the Government, a ſmall Squadron of Frigates, to cruize in Concert.

Auguſt 2. Letters from Liſbon of the 22d of June import, that the Council of State was then ſitting; and it was ſaid, that many Eccleſiaſticks and Seculars of Diſtinction, would be laid Hold of, and ſent after the Viſcount Ponte de Lima, and Count St. Laurent.

There is a very curious Plan, brought over by the laſt Ships from India, of a new Fort, which is begun to be erected at Bengal.---It is ſaid, that if executed agreeable to the Plan, it will be ſo ſtrong and extenſive, as to be able to reſiſt the whole Force of Aſia united, if properly garriſoned. It is computed that it will coſt a Million of Money erecting.

They write from Hamburgh, that their Advices concerning the Ruſſians are ſo contradictory, that they know not what to make of them. According to ſome Letters, Marſhal Daun having made Remonſtrances to General Soltikoff, on the Slowneſs of his Operations, the latter made Anſwer, that when he took Leave of the Empreſs, his Sovereign, ſhe ordered him to ſecond her Allies efficaciouſly, and in all Things to model his Proceedings by theirs; that he had punctually obeyed his Orders, ſeeing that though the King of Pruſſia twice or thrice offered Marſhal Daun Battle, the latter did not chooſe to riſk an Engagement; that the Empreſs of Ruſſia deſired to ſpare the Lives of her Troops as much as the Empreſs Queen did thoſe of hers.

Letters from Cologn ſay, that the French Camp at Corbach is moſt advantageouſly ſituated, on the Spot which the great Turenne formerly made Choice of to encamp on.

Auguſt 5. His Majeſty, upon an Application made by the Royal Society, has granted a Sum of Money, to enable them to ſend proper Perſons to St. Helena and Bencoolen, to obſerve the Tranſit of Venus over the Sun next June. The Lords of the Admiralty likewiſe have granted a Ship, to convey the Obſervers to their Stations. We hear that two Gentlemen have offered to go for this Purpoſe to St. Helena.

We hear that General Elliot, who trained, by indefatigable Induſtry, the brave Fellows that have juſt done him and their Country ſo much Honour, at Emſdorff, will have the late Sir John Cope's Regiment of Dragoons; that Lord Pembroke will get Elliot's Light Horſe; and that Major Erſkine will ſucceed Lord Pembroke, as their Lieutenant-Colonel.

Auguſt 7. A Swediſh Man of War, of 36 Guns, coming from Seville, was accidentally burnt and blown up, in the Bay of Cadiz.

Letters from the Hague tell us, that they are well informed that the Subject of the frequent Conferences between the Count de Fuentes, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, and the Britiſh Miniſtry, is the Inſults offered to the Spaniſh Flag; and that his Excellency has preſented a very ſtrong Memorial on this Subject.

Auguſt 9. They write from Liſbon, that Carvallo, the Prime Miniſter of Portugal, has cauſed to be taken up and confined, three of the King's natural Brothers, and alſo a whole Convent of Nuns.

By Accounts from all Parts of the Kingdom, there never was a greater Plenty of all Kinds of Grain.

From May 1, 1756, to July 25, 1760, 122 Veſſels, belonging or conſigned to the Port of Liverpool, have been taken by the French; 24 of which have been retaken, ſeven ranſomed, three reſtored, two ſunk, and one ſtranded.

The Behaviour of Elliot's new raiſed Regiment of Light Horſe, the very firſt Time they were called upon, pleads more forcibly in Favour of a National Militia, than any Thing that has been, or that could be ſaid in the Senate.---It is certain that the higheſt Commendations are due to the Commanding Officer, who, by the moſt admirable Diſcipline, has in ſo ſhort a Time rendered thoſe Heroes an Over-match for French Veterans; but as it would be doing them the utmoſt Injuſtice to impute their Intrepidity entirely to Diſcipline, ſo it ſhould follow (notwithſtanding the Inſinuations and Sneers of many Gentlemen of the Army and others, whoſe Intereſt it is to oppoſe it) that as our Countrymen in general already poſſeſs the moſt eſſential Conſtituents in the Character of a true Soldier, the Militia of theſe Kingdoms, properly diſciplined, will prove as able, as they have ſhewn themſelves willing, to repel any foreign Invaſion; and we make no Doubt, had it had the ſame Opportunities, it would e'er now have rivalled in Reputation the Swiſs Militia, which few regular Forces have attacked with Impunity.

One of the King of Portugal's natural Brothers, whom he has baniſhed, or impriſoned, is Archbiſhop of Braga, and Primate of the Kingdom; and another, if we miſtake not, is Inquiſitor-General.

It is rumoured in Holland, that in Conſequence of a ſecret Convention between the Courts of Vienna and Verſailles, the Empreſs Queen is to cede to France, at the End of the War, in Conſideration of the Aſſiſtance received from that Crown, not Oſtend, and Nieuport, but the Dutchy of Luxembourg.

Auguſt 12. Advices from the Allied Army ſay, that within the Compaſs of ſix Weeks, ſome Thouſands of French Deſerters have gone over to the Allies.

We hear, that in Conſideration of the Wirtemberg Troops, conſiſting of 12,000 Men, marching (AB) the Aſſiſtance of the Houſe of Auſtria, the Emperor will cede to the Duke their Maſter ſome Territories in Swabia, adjacent to his Territories in the Black Foreſt; and likewiſe give him a high Poſt in the Empire.

We learn from Francfort, that the Court of Vienna hath highly diſobliged that City, by threatening it with Military Execution, for oppoſing the Regulations made by the Imperial Commiſſaries in the Affair of the Coin.

Auguſt 19. Orders are ſent to all the Officers appointed for the Cuſtody of the French Priſoners of War in England, to keep a ſtrict Watch over them.

Auguſt 21. The Utrecht Gazette ſays, that Elliot's Light Horſe have added the Colours they took from the French at Emſdorff to their Standards.

We hear ſix of the Independent Companies now raiſing are to be Highlanders.

By a Letter from Hanover we learn, that 120 wounded Men of Elliot's Light Horſe, who were placed in Caſſel and Munden, unluckily fell into the Hands of the French, when they took Poſſeſſion of thoſe Places. [By the Return ſent to England, the Wounded of this Regiment amounted only to 50.]

Letters from Ratiſbon tell us, that the Wirtemberg Troops are to be employed in raiſing Contributions, in the Eſtates of thoſe Princes who have joined the Houſes of Brandebourg and Hanover.

Auguſt 23. There does not remain above Six Hundred Thouſand Pounds unpaid of the Eight Millions ſubſcribed to the laſt publick Loan to the Government; and between Two or Three Millions of this Subſcription were paid in many Months before the Payments became due, and this at a Time when our Enemies gave out that we were quite deſtitute of Money.

Part of a Letter from Hamburgh, Aug. 15.

"If ever the Fate of Sileſia was on the Point of being decided, it is at preſent, when all the Pruſſian, Auſtrian, and Ruſſian Forces are come into that Province. The King of Pruſſia hath advanced from Buntzlau to Lignitz. Marſhal Daun, who was at Lowenberg, is following him. Prince Henry hath taken Poſt beyond the Oder, near Breſlau, to oppoſe the Ruſſians. Pomerania is evacuated by the Ruſſians.

"This unfortunate Town (ſays a Letter from Dreſden of the 8th Inſt.) ſeems doomed to feel the Weight of the King of Pruſſia's Reſentment. Gen. Macquire hath juſt received Advice, that tho' the King of Pruſſia hath again marched to Sileſia, and penetrated into that Province, he hath left 15000 Men under Gen. Hulſen in the Camp of Schlettau, and hath ſince detached a Body of Forces, of the ſame Amount, under Gen. Wedel, to join Hulſen, and endeavour to reduce this Capital; in which Attempt they may poſſibly ſucceed, conſidering the Abſence of Marſhal Daun, and that they will have only the feeble Army of the Empire, and ſome Troops under Laſci, to cope with."

Newcaſtle, Auguſt 16. This Week Colonel Burgoyne's Regiment of Light Horſe paſſed through this Place, on their March to the South: They made a fine Appearance, and are greatly elated with the Behaviour of Colonel Elliot's in Germany, whom they call their gallant Brothers.

KINGSTON (in JAMAICA) Sept. 6.

On Sunday laſt arrived at Port-Royal, his Majeſty's Sloop of War Port-Antonio,-------Gedoin, Eſq; Commander, from a Cruize, and brought in three Prizes.

The Brig Betſey, Captain Miller, who ſailed on Wedneſday Morning for the Muſqueto Shore, about four Leagues to the Southward, was chaſed in by a large Privateer Sloop, of about 10 or 12 Guns, attended by a ſmall Privateer Schooner; they afterwards ſtretched away to the Southward.

Thurſday arrived at Port-Royal, ſent in by his Majeſty's Ship Boreas,------Uvedale, Eſq; Commander, a Polacco from Marſeilles, bound to Cape Francois; Captain Uvedale has alſo burnt, in the Mole of St. Nicola, a large French Sloop Privateer, mounting 14 Guns, and 150 Men, commanded by that Miſcreant Fernandez (who inhumanly murdered Captain Stiles, as mentioned in a former Paper) the Wretch and his Crew made their Eſcape on Shore.

Same Evening was ſent in by the Renown, ------- Mackenzie, Eſq; Commander, a ſmall French Sloop Privateer. And off the Weſt End of this Iſland, another French Sloop Privateer is taken by the Cerberus, ----- Webber, Eſq; Commander.

BOSTON, October 13.

"Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, Auguſt 12, 1760.

"Laſt Friday was poſted up at the Corners of the principal Streets in Liſbon, a Placart, commanding all Romans, the Subjects of the Pope, to retire out of this Kingdom before the End of next Month. In ſhort, a Rupture is declared openly between this Court and the Court of Rome, and all Correſpondence is ſtopt."

By a Gentleman, who came to Town laſt Wedneſday, in 17 Days from Quebec, and 12 from Montreal, by the Way of Crown-Point, we learn, that M. Vaudreuil and Levy, and all the French Regulars with their Officers, a Number of Merchants and other Inhabitants at Montreal, and Parts adjacent, that had not complied with the Articles of Capitulation, were gone from thence with their moveable Effects for Quebec, where a Number of Tranſports are provided, in order for a general Embarkation from thence to France.---That Major Elliot was appointed to command at the Bay of Chaleurs and Gaſpee, and other Places down the River, and was to proceed thither with a Number of Troops to take Poſſeſſion; the Capitulation including in it, as we hear, not only all Canada, but likewiſe all the Territories thereon depending.---And, that Major Rogers, with a large Body of Rangers, were gone out upon a diſtant Expedition towards Lake Superior.

We hear that the Antelope Man of War, Capt. Webb, has taken a French Frigate of 36 Guns, near the Streights of Belleiſle; ſhe was laden with Fiſh, and bound to France.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 20.

Friday laſt the Ship Britannia, Captain Tillet, arrived here from Philadelphia: He ſailed from thence the 30th ult. and in 3 Days after took in a Pilot at Sandy-Hook, but the Wind being then contrary could not get up; and on the 7th Inſt. was drove to Sea, in a violent Hurricane at N. E. which continued almoſt without Intermiſſion for 6 Days; moſt of which Time the Britannia was on her Beam Ends; when the Cargo ſhifted and the Chain Bolts were drawn out of the Sides without any Sail ſet. The 10th, the Heighth of the Gale, Capt. Tillet ſaw a large Ship with only her Fore Maſt ſtanding, but ſhe being to Windward could not ſpeak with her: The 13th he ſpoke with Captain Budden, in a Brig from Liſbon, loaded with Salt, for Philadelphia, who, in the ſame Gale, loſt all his Maſts, Boat, and Caboſe, and had two Men waſhed overboard. Capt. Tillet ſupplied him with every Thing he wanted, helped him to raiſe Jury Maſts, took him in Tow for 36 Hours, and would have ſeen him ſafe into the Capes of Delaware, had not his Hawſer broke, when he left him in Lat. 36. Lon. 71. ſteering his proper Courſe.

The ſeveral Companies of Colonel Montgomery's Highland Regiment, who lately returned from Albany, embarked on Thurſday laſt, and fell down Yeſterday, to proceed for Halifax.

His Excellency Thomas Boone, Eſq; Governor of New Jerſey, has iſſued a Proclamation, appointing Friday the 24th Inſtant, to be obſerved throughout that Province, as a Day of Public Thankſgiving to Almighty GOD, for the late glorious Succeſſes of His Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of Canada.

PHILADELPHIA, October 22.

Saturday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned to the Fifth of January next. And on Monday his Honour the GOVERNOR went to New-Caſtle, in order to meet the Aſſembly of the Three Lower Counties there.

Sunday laſt Captain Dingee arrived here from Jamaica. On the 6th Inſtant he met with a violent Gale of Wind off of Cape Hatteras, in which his Ship was thrown on her Beam Ends, which obliged him to throw over board ſome of his Guns, and he received conſiderable Damage in his Cargoe. On the 13th he ſpoke with Captain Foſter, in a Snow from Hull for Virginia, which had loſt her Maſts in the ſame Gale, and had taken up Captain Brown and his Crew, that belonged to a Schooner from North-Carolina to New-York, which foundered at Sea.

The ſame Day Captain Charles Stewart alſo came up from Jamaica. The 16th Inſtant he ſpoke with Captain George Evans, in the Brig America, bound to New-York from Jamaica, in great Diſtreſs, having, on the 8th of this Month, been in a ſevere Storm, in which he ſhifted his Hold, and his Veſſel overſet, but, by cutting away his Mainmaſt, ſhe righted again; however ſhe afterwards loſt her other Maſt, Boltſprit, Head, and every Thing on Deck. Captain Stewart ſpared him ſome Sails, Spars, Bread, Beef and Water; he was about 25 Leagues from the Land, and deſigned to get in here. Captain Stewart, on the 11th Inſtant, in Lat. 34, ſaw a Sloop without her Boltſprit and Boom; and Capt. Evans met with the Hull of a Ship, with ſeveral Cheſts, and other Wreck about her.

Captain Nicholſon, likewiſe from Jamaica, loſt ſome Sails in the ſame Storm; and on the Coaſt ſpoke with a ſmall Schooner from Monto-Chriſti for Rhode-Iſland, that had loſt her Mainmaſt, and one of her Hands; and ſome time before the Schooner met with a Brig or Snow without Maſts, and no Body on board.

Captain Roſs, from Nevis, came up on Monday without his Boltſprit.

Captain Brown, from New-York to Jamaica, is loſt on Maguana; the People ſaved.

Arrived from this Port, Captains Ford and Hunter at Newfoundland; and Captain Vaughan at Jamaica.

BY the Command and Order of the wise Magistrates at Ilantz, and in the Grub, situate in the Upper League of the ancient Rhætia [or the Country of the Grisons:] These are to notify to Hans Walther, of Valendas, and his Wife Catherine, of the Family of de Rungs, together with their four Children, Hans Blasi, Hans, Michael, and Catherine, who in the Year 1735 went over to the English North American Colonies, as also to their Descendants, that, on Pain of forfeiting all the Estates and Effects, together with the Rights, Privileges and Prerogatives, belonging to them here, they, or any of them, within the Term of six Months after the third and last formal Publication of this Advertisement, do send in their Names, and, by authentic Documents, do prove and shew forth, that they are the above-named Persons, or their Descendants, to the Purpose that, for their own Interest, their Estates and Effects may farther be taken Care of; in Failure whereof, and after the Expiration of this fixed peremptory Term, they shall no more be heard, nor their Appeals admitted.

N. B. If any one or more of the above mentioned Grisons, or their Descendants, should be found out, they are desired to send the requisite Documents for their Legitimation to Mr. PETER MILLER, at the Hand and Pen, in Second-street, Philadelphia, who will take Care to send them to London, from whence they will be forwarded to Ilantz aforesaid.

THE Partnership of M'CULLOUGH and EDDY being expired, by the Death of JAMES M'CULLOUGH, one of the Partners, all Persons who are indebted to said Partnership, are desired speedily to pay their respective Debts to JAMES EDDY, the surviving Partner; and those who have any Demands against them, are desired to bring in their Accounts, that they may be duly paid. There is on Hand an Assortment of European and East-India Goods, which will be sold low, for ready Money. Tbc. 3 Mo.

TO be sold by WILLIAM CALLENDER, as an Attorney to John Oxley, and Benjamin Callender, of the Island of Barbados, a Lot of Land, situate in Philadelphia, between the fifth and sixth Streets from the River Delaware, bounded on the North-side of Mulberry or Arch-street, containing in Breadth on said Arch-street 49 Feet and an Half, and 306 Feet in Length; the said Lot stands high, which makes it pleasant and airy, and convenient for building. Also a Plantation at Cohansey, in Cumberland County, West New-Jersey, in or near the Town of Greenwich, containing 70 Acres, more or less. Also ten Acres of Cedar-swamp, on Prince Morris's River, near Blackwater, and supposed to be on or near the Line of Cumberland County. For Terms of Sale, enquire of the said William Callender, at his House, in Market-street, Philadelphia. †

WHEREAS John Kelley, of Tinicum Township, Bucks County, hath fraudulently obtained a Number of Bonds from the Subscriber, for the Consideration of a certain Place or Plantation, to which he hath no Right nor Title; these are therefore to forewarn all Persons from taking an Assignment of any Bond by me executed to the said John, for I am determined not to pay any Part of them, unless compelled thereto, by a due Course of Law, as I never received any Consideration, either directly or indirectly, for the said Bonds. † HENRY NEWTON, senior.

TO be sold, by public Vendue, on the Premises, on Saturday, the 25th of this instant October, at 5 o' Clock in the Afternoon, four three Story Brick Houses, opposite to Mr. John Inglis's, over the Drawbridge, 40 Feet deep each, bounded to the Northward by a House of Samuel Powell's, to the Westward by Front-street, to the Southward by a House of Mr. John Reily's, and to the Eastward by Water-street, having an Alley between them, with a new Pump, subject to a Ground-rent of Forty-seven Shillings and Sixpence Sterling each. Any Person inclining to purchase all or either of the above Houses before the Day of Sale, may know the Terms by applying to JOHN WIER, on Society-hill.

N. B. The Tenants now in the above Houses, are warned to leave them the 13th of December next. ¶

By Order of the Commissioners for Indian Affairs, will be sold, by public Vendue, under the Court-house, on Wednesday, the 29th of this instant October, at Two o' Clock in the Afternoon,

A LARGE Quantity of choice Summer and short Hair Deer-skins; a Parcel of Bear-skins, and some good Beaver, belonging to the Province. JOSIAH DAVENPORT, Clerk.

TO be sold by public Vendue, on Monday the 10th of November next, at the House of Benjamin Spycher, in Tulpehocken, 474 Acres of Land, and Allowance for Roads, situate in Heydelberg Township, Lancaster County, adjoining several Plantations in Tulpehocken. Any Person inclining to purchase, before the Day of Sale, may treat with Adam Dieffenbach, in Tulpehocken aforesaid, or with Timothy Horsfield, in Bethlehem, Northampton County. Also to be sold, by public Vendue, on Wednesday the 12th Day of November next, at Reading, in Berks County, 106 Acres of Land, with Allowance for Roads, situate on Schuylkill, about a Mile from said Town. Whoever inclines to purchase, before the Day of Sale, may apply to David Henderson, Esq; in Reading, or to the said Timothy Horsfield. † 5 W.

RUN away from the Subscriber, about the 7th of April last, A convict Servant Man, named John Baker, but had a forged Pass, and called himself John Laws; he was born in the West of England, and speaks much on that Dialect; has black Hair, about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, and is a Blacksmith by Trade. Had on, and took with him, A Dove coloured Broadcloth Coat and Breeches, almost new. He was seen at Bustel-Town about the 18th of July, and it is likely has altered his Clothes. Whoever takes up said Servant, and brings him to his Master, in Baltimore County, shall have Six Pistoles Reward, and if secured in any Goal Three Pistoles, and reasonable Charges, paid by

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

RUN away, on the 28th of July last, from the Subscriber, living in Alexandria, Fairfax County, Virginia, A convict Servant Man, named John Murphey, born in Ireland, about 28 Years of Age, by Trade a Joiner, a low well-set Fellow, about 5 Feet 4 Inches high, struts in his Walk, has a pale Complexion, large black Beard and Eye-brows, wide Mouth, and pleasant Countenance, sings extraordinary well, having followed it in the Play-houses in London, talks proper English, and that in a polite Manner; his Apparel not all known by me, but had a fine hat, almost new, good Wig, and Linen, both coarse and fine, two brown Cloth Jackets, with and without Sleeves, new black knit Breeches, also good Buckskin Ditto, fine white Cotton Stockings, and others, Brass Buckles, and good Shoes. I believe he has a musical Grammar, the Owner's Name wrote in it Richard Rigg; likewise I am informed had a Quantity of Dollars, and likely to be base Metal, as he seems experienced in coining. It is imagined he has forged a Pass, and likely will deny his Name, Trade and Place of Nativity. Whoever secures the said Convict in any Goal, so as his Master may have him again, shall have the above Reward, and if brought home, reasonable Charges, paid by JOHN PATTERSON. ¶ 8 W.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forbid to take him off at their Peril.

ST. JOHN'S (in ANTIGUA) AUGUST 20.

ON Monday laſt a French Flag of Truce arrived from the Iſland of Granado, from whence ſhe brought the Priſoners taken in a Ship bound from Briſtol to Jamaica, which was carried in by four French Privateers.

Auguſt 23. The Sloop ---------- Captain Blake, bound from this Port to Baſſeterre, in Guadaloupe, was taken by a ſmall Privateer, which has been very troubleſome on the Coaſt of Guadaloupe: The Privateer was afterwards taken by the Antigua, but the Prize got clear.

A Privateer belonging to Briſtol has alſo taken a French Privateer, and carried her to Guadaloupe.

Auguſt 30. We hear from St. Chriſtophers, that his Majeſty's Ships Temple, Captain Obrian, and the Griffin, Captain Taylor, being on a Cruize to the Southward, had Intelligence of ſome Privateers and other Veſſels that were lying in the Harbour of Granado; and it was immediately reſolved to attempt to bring them away. For this Purpoſe his Majeſty's ſaid Ships made Sail for that Place, and having hoiſted French Colours, ſtood into the Harbour, without Heſitation, and brought up cloſe to the Fort. The Enemy ſeemed to be effectually deceived, and did not make the leaſt Oppoſition; but no ſooner were the Ships brought into a proper Poſition than they were convinced of their Error, by the Diſplay of Engliſh Colours, and a ſmart Cannonade; and at the ſame Time the Boats were diſpatched to bring away the Veſſels, which lay higher up. An Attack ſo ſudden and ſo briſk, could not be withſtood. The Fire of the Fort, which is a very good one, was irregular and ſlow; and the Enemy preſently found themſelves obliged to ſend off a Flag of Truce, with an Offer of all the Veſſels in the Harbour, perceiving that thoſe were what we aimed at. Upon this the Firing ceaſed, and our Boats took Poſſeſſion of all the Veſſels that remained, being ten in Number; and ſhortly after a Sloop from Coracoa brought to along-ſide the Temple, proud of ſo good a Convoy to Martinico.---One of thoſe Prizes is arrived at St. Chriſtophers, with a valuable Cargoe, and the reſt are expected there. We do not yet know what they all are, but it is ſaid ſome of them are Privateers.

On Saturday laſt his Majeſty's Ship Creſcent, Capt. Collingwood, arrived here with the St. Michael, a French Privateer, of 14 Guns and 112 Men. Captain Collingwood, but a little before, alſo took the French Privateer St. Antonio, of 8 Guns, and 80 odd Men, and ſent her to Barbados.

Since our laſt his Majeſty's Sloop Antigua, Captain Bagſter, arrived here from a Cruize, in which ſhe has taken two French Privateers, of 6 Guns a-piece, and two Merchant Veſſels; the one a French Sugar-loaded Sloop, and the other a pretended Dutch Schooner, laden with Bale Goods.

Sept. 4. It is now ſaid that Colonel Crawford has refuſed the Government of Guadaloupe, and that Lieutenant-Colonel Dalrymple is appointed Governor thereof.

Sept. 10. We hear from the Leeward Iſlands, that conſiderable Damage has been done by the late South-Weſt Winds. Some Veſſels were put aſhore at St. Chriſtophers, and four or five at St. Euſtatius, one of which was a French Privateer of 10 Guns, which was entirely loſt. Our greateſt Misfortune was the Loſs of the Leveret Schooner, in the Government's Service, which was overſet at Sea, and all the People on board periſhed.

The Sloop, late his Majeſty's Sloop Virgin, was amongſt the Veſſels taken at Granado, by the Temple and Griffin.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Sept. 13.

Our Advices from Auguſta and that Quarter, which are not later than of the 27th ultimo, are, That Joſeph Wright arrived at the Tallaſſih Town, in the Upper Creeks, the 5th ult. that the Headmen behaved well to him as he paſſed through the different Towns; but that he deſpaired of obtaining Satisfaction for the Murders, and inſinuated that ſome Indians of Note were concerned in them; and that he delivered a Talk from Governor Ellis on the 7th, which ſeemed to be well received. That the Mortar was returned to the Cherokee Country, and that four Indians had pretended to bring a Talk from him to the Creeks, preſſing them to join the Cherokees againſt us, which was accompanied with a bloody Stick, and two Engliſhmens Scalps; but that the Oakfuſkees took and threw them into the River, declaring they were tired of Cherokee Talks, and would hear no more of them. That there is ſome Diſagreement between Fool Harry and the Long Warrior, and the Young Lieutenant and his Party, who deny their having any Concern in the late Murders. That the Handſome Fellow had been out to kill a Cherokee, and brought in a Scalp, merely to clear his Character, which he heard was ſuffering with us. That the Chactah Traders were arrived in the Creek Nation with good Returns, and were eſcorted thither by a good many Chactahs. That the French at Mobille ſeem very apprehenſive of a Viſit from the Engliſh, and therefore take uncommon Pains to keep the Mortar in their Intereſt. That ſome white Men do incredible Miſchief among the Creeks with their Lies, which keeps up the Diſtruſt of that Nation; yet a good deal of the murdered Traders Effects were reſtored; and that, upon the whole, Matters look rather well than the reverſe, in the Creek Nation.

Sept. 20. Laſt Night arrived Charles M'Gunningham, Expreſs from Fort Prince George, with Diſpatches from the Commanding Officer there to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, which, we hear, do not contain any favourable Advices. Our Letters by the ſaid Expreſs are dated the 12th and 13th Inſtant, and full of Intelligence given at the Fort by Indian Wenches, Half-breeds and others, but moſt unfavourable, and few of the Accounts agreeing one with another. Upon the whole, it ſeems to be too well confirmed, that Capt. Paul Demere, with at leaſt one other Officer, and 25 Men, of the Fort Loudoun Command, have fallen Victims to Indian Cruelty; the Time is not mentioned, but the Place the Ball-Play Creek, ten Miles on this Side Fort-Loudoun, whither the Great-Warrior had conducted them, on their Way to Fort Prince George; the Settiquoh People (it is pretended) had a Quarrel with thoſe of Chotih, on Account of the unequal Diſtribution of Plunder, and that therefore they, while the Great Warrior was abſent, looking for his Matchcoat, which he had accidentally [more likely deſignedly, as a Signal] dropt, fell upon our People, and murdered the Number mentioned; upon which the Great Warrior immediately returned and took Capt. Stuart, as his Property, to ſave him; and every other Indian at the ſame time ſeized as many white Men as he could; ſince which they are ſaid to be diſtributed amongſt the ſeveral Towns, as Priſoners or Slaves, except Capt. Stuart, whom the Great Warrior took under his Protection, and carried back to Chotih, whence the Little Carpenter is ſaid to be conducting him and four Soldiers to Virginia: Ten of the Fort Loudoun People, with an Officer, ſuppoſed to be Enſign Bogges, when the Indians fell upon them, took to the River; ſeven of them were drowned, the other three afterwards got into Hywaſſih, where two of them burſt themſelves with eating, but the Officer had not been heard of. All the Accounts agree, that Capt. Stuart is ſafe, and that he will not be hurt, let what will happen to the reſt.

M'Lamore was not returned from the Over-hills when M'Gunningham left Fort Prince George; but all the Middle Settlements and Lower Towns People, and Hawkins among them, were come down to the Lower Towns, it was thought, to beſiege the Fort, which they ſurrounded every Night, or in Expectation of ſeeing the Garriſon withdraw themſelves, and to gather in the Corn, and carry it to the Middle Settlements.

Fort Prince George, Keowee, Sept. 12, 1760.

"Every Day we become more and more ſenſible of the Impolicy of not deſtroying the growing Corn about the Lower Towns, the Conſequences of which (as well as of the Regulars, left by Colonel Montgomery, being withdrawn to ſo great a Diſtance from us as they are) I have hinted to you in former Letters. Had that Corn been deſtroyed when in our Power, and his Majeſty's Troops been ſuffered to remain here or at Ninety-ſix, or eſtabliſhed a new Poſt between the two, or even ſtrengthened the latter, I believe the Cherokees would have been kept in ſome Sort of Awe; we ſhould not have been reduced, as we now are, to nearly as wretched a Situation as the Garriſon of Fort-Loudoun, to ſubſiſt on a ſcant Allowance of Horſe-fleſh and ſour Flour; they would have been infinitely more diſtreſſed than by burning their Towns, and at the ſame time abſolutely incapacitated to undertake either a Siege or Blockade of this Fort; whereas now, invited by the fine Fields around us, and convinced that there is no Force near to give them the leaſt Check, all the Lower Towns and Middle Settlements Indians are come down to the Lower Towns, have actually blockaded and pent us up like a Parcel of Cattle for Slaughter, ſeem to carry on the Blockade with Spirit and Judgment, and by Numbers, ſufficient to excite both our and your Attention: What our Blockade may end in you will eaſily judge, from the Accounts of our Condition you lately had; the Sequel to which I dare not truſt to Paper, but the Bearer (Mr. M'Gunningham) can inform you [who tells us, that two Horſes he ſold them, was all they had to ſubſiſt on, beſides ſour Flour, from the Time Abram's Horſe was killed to the 13*th Inſtant.*] We are now ſo cloſely ſurrounded, and the Paths ſo way-laid, from this quite to Twelve Mile River, that I even doubt whether this, or any future Letter from hence, will reach you; unleſs a ſufficient Body of Men are now marching, to command Reſpect, to open a Communication between Ninety-ſix and us, and to throw Supplies in to this Fort, which the Enemy ſeem at all Events determined to have. If no Motion is making for theſe Purpoſes, I may bid you, and all my Friends, an eternal Adieu; for, in that Caſe, we muſt fall by our own Hands, or as Fort Loudoun did, and expect worſe Treatment (if poſſible) than that Garriſon. As I came hither to ſerve my King and Country, which I am conſcious of having faithfully done; ſo, if it is my Lot to die by Inches here, I ſhall only regret that I can ſerve them no longer, and that my Countrymen have not, in due Time, exerted that Spirit which prevailed amongſt, and did Honour to, their Anceſtors, in the laſt Indian War; when the Inhabitants of Carolina ſcarce amounted to one Third of their preſent Number, and all the ſavage Nations (five or ſix times more numerous than now) were united againſt them. For God's Sake, tell me, what are they about? Have they no Compaſſion for us, for themſelves, or for their Poſterity? Shall ſcarce 2000 Savages now give Law to Carolina, when 12 or 15,000, Forty-five Years ago, could not? Oh! my Country! ----------Altho' we are not without frequent melancholly Reflections, to which our very low Diet, ſevere Duty, &c. contribute greatly, yet do not imagine we are ſo diſpirited as to think of giving up or evacuating this Poſt; no, we ſhall never do either without Orders from a ſuperior Power: On the contrary, Mr. Miln, our Commanding Officer, ſeems reſolved to defend it to the laſt Extremity, or periſh with it; and his Garriſon, I believe, to a Man, are determined to do the ſame, for we have no Reaſon to expect any Mercy; beſides, we too well know what would be the Conſequences of acting otherwiſe; the Indians would immediately proceed to Ninety-ſix, lay waſte all the Country from the Catawba to Savannah Rivers, and carry their Incurſions even to within 50 Miles of Charles-Town; not only ſo, the Creeks would be encouraged to join the Cherokees whenever this Fort falls, or I am egregiouſly miſtaken. Pardon my taking up ſo much of your Time in (perhaps) impertinent Remarks; but I am deſirous of giving you my Sentiments, while it is in my Power; yet a little while, and the inevitable Decree of Fate may compel me to be ſilent."

From Georgia we have no other News, than that the Indian called the Cow-Keeper, having heard that Governor Ellis would ſhortly leave that Province, had ſent his Excellency Word, "that he muſt ſee him before he goes; that he had at length, in a Manner, extirpated the Florida Indians (old Enemies of the Engliſh) having lately diſcovered their Haunts, killed many, and taken 20 of them Priſoners, which he intended to bring to Savannah to ſell; that he likes War better than Hunting, and finds it more beneficial; and therefore intends to try what he can do againſt the Cherokees, for he never will forſake the Engliſh."

Extract of a Letter from Auguſta, dated the 8*th Inſt.*

"On the 5th Inſtant, Tomathli-hacho, Italali-mico, and other Creeks of the Oakfuſkees, joined the Handſome-Fellow, who had been waiting here for them ten Days; and gave a Talk, the Purport of which was, That they (the Upper Creeks) had lately received many good Talks from the Governors of Carolina and Georgia, which they had ſeriouſly conſidered, and thought the Contents very good; that there had been a general Meeting of the Headmen lately at Talaſſih, wherein it was unanimouſly reſolved, to maintain Peace and good Correſpondence with the Engliſh; that, as a Token of their Sincerity, they had ſent down a Cherokee Scalp, lately taken at Hywaſſih, to wipe away a few Tears for the Murder of the Traders in their Nation; and they earneſtly requeſted, that their Trade might be fully reſtored to them, and continued as uſual.

Sept. 27. Laſt Monday M'Lamore, and M'Mullen, with the two Cherokees, of whoſe coming we had Advice on Saturday Morning, arrived at Mr. Nightingale's. They brought Talks from the Chiefs of the Upper Nation, and ſome other Headmen, to the Lieutenant-Governor, which have been delivered: But his Honour, having been dangerouſly ill for ſome time paſt, and not being yet in a Condition to do Buſineſs, they were referred to his Majeſty's Council, to be anſwered; who, we hear, have propoſed to the Indians, that, previous to entering upon any Negociation, they ſhould bring down all the Engliſh Priſoners they had taken during the War, to Ninety-ſix, whither all their People, Priſoners amongſt us, ſhould likewiſe be carried to be exchanged; and that when this was done, other Matters, relative to Peace, might be entered upon. When this Anſwer was given the Indians, being aſked if they had any Reply to make, they anſwered no; but they aſked, when they might expect their People to be at Ninety-ſix; in Return they were aſked, when our People would be brought there, and they anſwered in 16 Days from the Time of their leaving this (which they are to do on Monday next) as they expect to find them at Keowee by the Time they arrive there.

By M'Lamore we have the following Letter from Fort Prince George, September 14, 1760.

----"Yeſterday in the Afternoon, as we were going on with ſome Preparations to make the beſt Defence poſſible, arrived the Corn Taſſell of Toquoh, and the Wolf of Keowee, accompanied by Charles M'Lamore, and one Bernard M'Mullen, who are going down, they ſay, with a Talk from the Great Warrior to the Lieutenant-Governor; they ſay too, that Capt. Stuart was carried off by the Little Carpenter to Virginia, and all the other Officers, with 32 Privates have been killed; but do not give the ſame Reaſons for killing them as others have done. While the Corn Taſſel and Wolf were croſſing the River, 6 or 7 Fellows, who were lying in wait to get a good Shot at ſome of us, moved off in our View; the Corn Taſſel obſerving it, before he came to us, went after and ſpoke to them, and from thence beyond another Hill, where there was a very conſiderable Number, who likewiſe went off up the River, when he had ſpoke with them; then he returned and told us theſe People had not heard of his coming down, but that now they would moleſt us no more. This Morning (the 14th) the Mankiller of Noucaſſih, and the Second-Man of the Sugar-Town, came with a Talk, in Behalf of themſelves and Serowih, which they delivered to Mr. Miln, deſiring it might be ſent to the Lieutenant-Governor by M'Lamore; ſignifying, that they are willing to agree to whatever the Town of Chotih propoſes. Notwithſtanding this, I am aſſured, that they will perſevere in attempting to reduce this Fort, and will leave no Stone unturned to accompliſh their Deſign; for they have a particular Spleen againſt ſome of us, which neither Time, Treaties nor Preſents will eradicate: I hope, therefore, that Advantage will be taken of theſe Meſſengers going down, to throw Supplies into this Fort, ſufficient to ſupport us at leaſt till your new Regiment is formed, and can march to our Relief; this being the critical Time.------ While the whole Cherokee Nation is aſſembling in the Lower Towns, and before they can draw off their Corn to the Middle Settlements and Over-hills Towns, ſeems the Time too for our Forces to march, and ſtrike a Blow of Conſequence, perhaps they may never have another ſo good Opportunity: But then Col. Byrd's March from Virginia to the Upper Towns ſhould not be delayed a Moment. Thus we may have the Enemy between two Fires, and who eſcape one Army may fall in with the other; to avoid both, they muſt take to the Woods, and inevitably periſh for Want of Subſiſtence, or be obliged to accept our Terms, and render themſelves tributary to us. I believe there are ſome Headmen who wiſh for Peace; but the young Men (the new made Warriors) are all mad, and giddy with their late Succeſſes, ſo that ſhould it be concluded either now or hereafter, before they have received ſome effectual Puniſhment, it is in their Power, and they will break it: They do not heſitate to tell us, that do what they will, we ſhall be glad to make Peace with them at any Time. In fine, I do not believe, that they will let ſlip a ſingle Opportunity to make themſelves Maſters of this Fort and Garriſon, let that offer when it will, and be it Peace or War. If M'Lamore ſhould prove honeſt and in our Intereſt, the Indians are artful enough not to let him penetrate into their real Deſigns, while he is going to and fro with Diſpatches."

A Letter from Mucculaſſah, in the Upper Creek Nation, dated the 12th ult. adviſes, of the Arrival of a French General at Mobille, who is not only putting that Place in the beſt Poſture of Defence poſſible, but alſo uſing his utmoſt Endeavours to regain the Chactah Nation to the French Intereſt; offers very great Rewards for Engliſh and Chicaſah Scalps; and has engaged ſome Indians who live amongſt the Spaniards, at Penſacola, to come to his Aſſiſtance, upon the firing of four Guns, at Mobille, and three other Places: That the Scalp of Daniel Ragon, lately killed by the Chactahs in the French Intereſt, had been carried to that Gentleman; ſince which it was extremely dangerous for any Engliſhman to remain in that Nation, and accordingly, the laſt that was in it had come away: And that the Cherokees had brought the Small-Pox into the Upper Creek Nation.

A Gentleman writes us from the Congarees, that if the Cherokees really intended to make Peace with us, he thinks they would not have ſent down M'Lamore and M'Mullen, the Corn-Taſſel and the Wolf, without Capt. Stuart (whom they know to be a beloved Man with us) or ſome others of the Fort-Loudoun Garriſon; and therefore gives it as his Opinion, that theſe are only Spies, ſent to diſcover whether we are making any Diſpoſitions, or have any Forces marching, to relieve Fort Prince-George, or capable of giving them any Interruption in gathering and carrying off the Corn from the Lower-Towns; and hope, that they will not be hurried out of Charles-Town.

Our Letters from Auguſta, of the 17th Inſtant, hint, that if the Cherokees once get Poſſeſſion of Fort Prince-George, a Creek War will be inevitable; and that whenever that News comes (which they ſeem to expect, by the Advices they had received from Ninety-Six) all the private Forts there, viz. Meſſrs. M'Gillivray's, Macartan and Campbell's, Rae's, Williams's, Douglas's, and Barnard's (which are all well ſtocked with Proviſions and Ammunition) may prove rather advantageous to the Enemy than ſerviceable to us, unleſs their Garriſons be ſpeedily reinforced with Men. Theſe Letters add, that ſeveral principal Creeks were then at that Place; and that the Headmen of that Nation ſeemed eager and impatient for an Invitation to go to Savannah, and ſettle Matters upon the good Footing with Governor Ellis, but that ſomething neceſſary for their Reception ſeemed to be wanting------ which they may find here.

October 4. By an Expreſs laſt Wedneſday Evening, who left Colonel Byrd's Camp at Reed-Creek (about 200 Miles from Fort-Loudoun) on the 16th ult. we have the agreeable News of Captain John Stuart's being ſafely conducted thither by that honeſt and faithful Friend to the Engliſh, the Little-Carpenter, who conveyed him away from Fort-Loudoun, on the 31ſt of Auguſt, under Pretence of going a hunting for ſix Days: He (Captain Stuart) intended to make the beſt of his Way hither, but Colonel Byrd adviſed him firſt to go to Williamſburgh, whither he was accordingly going.---After the Garriſon of Fort-Loudoun had marched ten Miles, and encamped, the Indians gradually withdrew in the Evening; at Duſk there was not one of them with our People; but on the 10th of Auguſt, in the Morning, as a Serjeant and 12 Men were beginning to march, and the reſt were packing up their Bundles to follow, a Soldier from the Advance-guard diſcovered many Indians, and gave the Alarm; upon this Captain Stuart ran towards the River, or Brook, and called to the Men to ſtand to their Arms; the Indians in the Graſs immediately fired within 60 Yards, and put our Men, who were unprepared for ſuch a Piece of Treachery, into the utmoſt Confuſion.---Capt. Demere received two Wounds the firſt Volley, was directly ſcalped, and the Indians made him dance about for their Diverſion ſome Time, after which they chopped off one Hand or Arm, then the other, and ſo his Legs, &c. uſing the moſt ſhocking Barbarities on the Bodies of others of our People. About the 27th of Auguſt, Captain Stuart was promiſed his Liberty, if he would, by managing the Cannon, aſſiſt the Indians in the Reduction of Fort Prince-George, who were to ſet out againſt it the 6th of September; but the Little-Carpenter prevented his being obliged to do ſo; he purchaſed Capt. Stuart of a Fellow who had taken him Priſoner, at a very conſiderable Price; and has evinced that an Indian can be friendly and humane, in the ſtrongeſt Manner.

BOSTON, October 20.

We hear from Marſhfield, in the County of Plymouth, that on the 2d Inſtant died there, Mr. William Carver, aged 102 Years, who retained his Reaſon to the laſt. He was Brother's Son to the antient Governor Carver, of the Plymouth Colony, and has left behind him the fifth Generation of Male Iſſue; in all, Children, Grand Children, Great Grand Children, and Great Great Grand Children, Ninety-Six.

We hear that Captain Baker, in a Ship which ſailed from Briſtol the 2d of July laſt for this Port, and has been a miſſing Veſſel for ſome Time, was taken on his Paſſage, and carried into Martinico. It is ſaid, that there were Goods on board, that had been re-ſhipped, agreeable to Invoices, three or four times; the ſeveral Veſſels which had them on board before, having the bad Chance of being taken, or caſt away.

NEW-YORK, October 27.

A Brig from Ireland, with Proviſions for the Army, laſt Thurſday ſe'nnight, was forced on Shore at the Back of Long-Iſland, and Sloops were ſoon after ſent round to unload her, with a Proſpect of getting her off, but we fear leſt the Storm we had here more or leſs for ſeveral Days laſt Week from the North East and South, to the South Weſt, broke her up intirely. And one of the Sloops after ſhe arrived here, with Part of the Cargo, in the Storm we had laſt Friday Night, ſunk along Side the Wharff.

The ſame Night a Sloop from Providence, riding Quarantine in the North River, drove from her Anchors, and got upon ſome of the Oyſter Iſlands, and received conſiderable Damage both in Hull and Cargo.

The Sum raiſed throughout the ſeveral Pariſhes in Virginia, for the Sufferers by Fire in the Town of Boſton, amounted the 10th Inſtant, to 1542 l. 9s. 4d.

Brigadier General Monckton has, by a Letter to the Governor of Virginia, deſired to be aſſiſted with 300 Men from that Dominion, to help to garriſon and maintain the Poſts which we have, in the Courſe of this ſucceſsful War, taken from the French on the Ohio.

The Colony of Virginia is allowed the Sum of l. 32,268,19,0 out of the l. 50,000, granted by Parliament, for the Uſe of the Southern Colonies:---And the further Sum of l. 20,546, out of the 200,000, granted for the Uſe of the Colonies in general, for the Services by them reſpectively performed, in the Year 1758:---And their Agent has receiyed the ſaid Sums from the Exchequer.

Saturday laſt an Expreſs came to Town from Crown-Point, which he left on Monday; and by him we hear of the ſafe Arrival of General Amherſt at that Place, in good Health, from Quebec, on his Way hither.

The Earl of Leiceſter Packet Boat ſails this Day, Wind and Weather permitting, for Falmouth, with the Mail, which was cloſed laſt Night.

Thurſday laſt Captain Stone arrived here in a Schooner, in 11 Weeks from Dublin: The 29th of Auguſt he ſpoke with the Sloop Eſther, Captain Bruce, from Philadelphia, for Madeira, who had met with hard Weather, and ſplit moſt of her Sails; and the 15th Inſtant he ſpoke with the Brig Polly, Aaron King Maſter, from this Port for Africa, who had loſt many Things off his Deck, in the late bad Weather on this Coaſt.

PHILADELPHIA, October 30.

Since our laſt a Number of Veſſels arrived here from different Parts, almoſt all of which have ſuffered more or leſs in hard Gales of Wind they met with at Sea.

Captain White, from Cape-Fear, ſaw a Brig on the Capes of Virginia, without Maſts, from Montſerrat for New-York.---Captain Sherlock, from Nevis, loſt his Mate in a Storm.---Captain Alliſon, from Jamaica, loſt his Boats in a Gale of Wind the 7th Inſtant.---Captain Lake, from the ſame Place, in Lat. 38, on the 6th of this Month, met with very ſevere Weather, in which he loſt his Bolt-ſprit, Foremaſt, Sails, Rigging, &c. ſhifted his Hold, and the Ship was thrown on her Beam Ends; in which Condition ſhe continued till the 13th, when he was drove to the Latitude of Bermuda; he then got up Jury Maſts, and afterwards met with Captain Leech, in the Pennſylvania Frigate, and Captain Hollowell, in the Boſton Country Ship: Captain Leech was exceedingly kind to him, aſſiſted him with his Boats and Men, ſpared him a Sail, Bread, Water, Beef, and every Thing elſe he wanted, and ſaw him ſafe in. Captain Hollowell told him, he met with a Ship foundered at Sea, Part of her Bow above Water. Captain Lake, in Lat. 33, ſaw a Sloop from Antigua for New-York, deep loaded, that had loſt every Thing, and deſigned to get to Providence. And a Brig for Marble-Head, which ſailed with Captain Lake, loſt her Foremaſt.

Captain Evans, for New-York from Jamaica (mentioned in our laſt) came up laſt Friday, in a very diſtreſſed Condition.

Captain Burrows, from Providence, ſpared ſome Water to Captain Bremer, in the Norfolk, from Jamaica for Virginia, who had been out eight Weeks, had a Number of Negroes on board, ſome of whom, we hear, died, and others were thrown overboard, occaſioned by the Want of Water, of which they had none for eight Days before Captain Burrows fell in with them.

Captain Turner, who lately commanded a Snow from Anguilla for this Port, is come to Town; he and his People left the Veſſel on the Coaſt, having loſt her Maſts, and ſuffered other Damage, and were taken up, and carried into Virginia, by a Veſſel from Glaſgow.

Captain Welſh, in the Morning Star, from this Port for Antigua, is taken, and carried to Martinico.

On Saturday laſt Paul Oubert was executed near Perth-Amboy, for the Murder of Francis Poquet. His Behaviour, we hear, both before, and at, his Execution, was morooſe and ſullen, ſeeming ignorant of, and unconcerned about, his unhappy Condition. He refuſed the Aſſiſtance of a Proteſtant Divine; and when the Sheriff told him, about One o'Clock, it was Time to move, he declared he would not ſtir till he had eat his Dinner, which was brought him, when he eat and drank heartily, and then went off without the leaſt ſeeming Trouble or Terror on his Mind.

On Tueſday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of New-Jerſey met at Burlington.

At Guadaloupe, Captain Waſdale.

At South-Carolina, Captain Carpenter.

At St. Chriſtophers, Captain Patten.

October 16, 1760.

RUN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore County, Maryland, about four Miles from the Head of Bush River, two Servants, a Man and a Boy: They had on when they went away a Shirt and Pair of Trowsers each. The Man is a Convict, has a Sore on his left Leg, is a four looking Fellow, marked with the Small-Pox, has old Shoes, an old Hat, and old Leather Breeches. The Boy is a Taylor by Trade, and about 13 Years of Age. The Man is about five Feet six Inches high; both of them are without their Coats, and 'tis thought will pass for Father and Son. Whoever takes up and secures the said Servants, so that their Master may have them again, or in any Goal in Pennsylvania or Maryland, shall have Forty Shillings Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by me † THOMAS M'COOL.

EIGHT POUNDS REWARD.

RUN away last Night from the Baltimore Iron-Works, in Maryland, an English Convict Servant Man, named Joseph Holland; he is a young Man, of a fair Complexion, has blue Eyes, and a simple Look; is rather small than the middle Size; he has been used to wait in a House, and take Care of Horses; he has lately received a small Stroke on his Forehead, which may leave some Appearance still. Had on and took with him, when he went away, a Castor Hat, a light coloured cut Wig, a Bearskin Great-coat, a close Cotton Coat dyed, a coarse light coloured Cloth Jacket, with white Metal Buttons, Ozenbrigs Shirts and Breeches, Kersey Ditto, Country thread Stockings, a Pair of fine white Worsted Stockings, Country Shoes, with Buckles. He took with him a dark roan Mare, about 13 Hands and an Half high, her Face much lighter than any other Part of her; she has broad Buttocks, and a bob Tail, paces slow, and gallops well. Whoever secures the said Servant, so that he may be had again, shall have Five Pounds Reward, and Three Pounds for the Mare, paid by

Oct. 5, 1760. Tbc 6 W. RICHARD CROXALL.

RUN away from the Subscriber, about the 7th of April last, A convict Servant Man, named John Baker, but had a forged Pass, and called himself John Laws; he was born in the West of England, and speaks much on that Dialect; has black Hair, about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, and is a Blacksmith by Trade. Had on, and took with him, A Dove coloured Broadcloth Coat and Breeches, almost new. He was seen at Bussel-Town about the 18th of July, and it is likely has altered his Clothes. Whoever takes up said Servant, and brings him to his Master, in Baltimore County, shall have Six Pistoles Reward, and if secured in any Goal Three Pistoles, and reasonable Charges, paid by

CHARLES RIDGLEY. †8 W.

TWENTY POUNDS REWARD.

RUN away, on the 28th of July last, from the Subscriber, living in Alexandria, Fairfax County, Virginia, A convict Servant Man, named John Murphey, born in Ireland, about 28 Years of Age, by Trade a Joiner, a low well-set Fellow, about 5 Feet 4 Inches high, struts in his Walk, has a pale Complexion, large black Beard and Eye-brows, wide Mouth, and pleasant Countenance, sings extraordinary well, having followed it in the Play-houses in London, talks proper English, and that in a polite Manner; his Apparel not all known by me, but had a fine hat, almost new, good Wig, and Linen, both coarse and fine, two brown Cloth Jackets, with and without Sleeves, new black knit Breeches, also good Buckskin Ditto, fine white Cotton Stockings, and others, Brass Buckles, and good Shoes. I believe he has a musical Grammar, the Owner's Name wrote in it Richard Rigg; likewise I am informed had a Quantity of Dollars, and likely to be base Metal, as he seems experienced in coining. It is imagined he has forged a Pass, and likely will deny his Name, Trade and Place of Nativity. Whoever secures the said Convict in any Goal, so as his Master may have him again, shall have the above Reward, and if brought home, reasonable Charges, paid by JOHN PATTERSON. ¶ 8 W.

N. B. Masters of Vessels are forbid to take him off at their Peril.

To be LEASED,

For a longer or shorter Time,

A VERY good Merchant Mill, of the following Dimensions, the House 40 Feet by 30, with a large Bolting-chest on each of the lower Floors, and a Pair of best large Cullen-stones; is situated on a constant Stream, about three Miles from Choptank River; the Creek is navigable for small Boats from said River to the Mill Fall. Any Person inclinable to lease the said Mill, may have it on moderate Terms, by applying to the Subscriber, at Cambridge, in Maryland. DAVID MURRAY.

N. B. Any Person that understands keeping a Mill well, may meet with Encouragement, by applying to said Murray. ‖ Tbc 5 W.

RUN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore-Town, Maryland, a Convict Servant Man, named John Batt; he is about 50 Years of Age, stoops a little in his Shoulders, about five Feet seven or eight Inches high, of a brown Complexion, by Trade a Skin Dresser, and knows something of the Tanning Business: Had on when he went away, an old Felt Hat, a grey cut Wig, a blue Coat, with white Metal Buttons, a black Cloth Waistcoat, with a double Row of Buttons, black Breeches, tyed with Strings at the Knees, a Pair of Worsted Stockings, old Shoes, with Copper Buckles, and two white Shirts. Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him in any Goal, so that his Master may have him again, shall receive the above Reward, and all reasonable Charges, paid by me † VALENTINE LARSCH.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forbid, at their Peril, to carry off the above Servant. It is very likely he may change his Clothes.
